CONVEYANCES

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants and warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no expressed covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property mentioned is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage was drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same only one is recorded.

Subscribers will find mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found at the foot of this list.

July 8, 9, 11, 12, 13 and 14.

[1]Editor Record and Guide:

The mechanic's lien filed July 8, 1904, by Muller Bros agt John McGrath, owner, and James F. Meehan, contractor, for $450, on e s Prospect av, 100 ft south of 163d st, 75x100, Bronx, was satisfied the same day by depositing money with County Clerk. The owner claims lien is unjust and without merit, and he intends to litigate same. On July 13, 1904, the same lienors filed another lien for $425 on same premises for same work, solely to annoy owner. This lien will be bonded and fought.

Classification and Inspection Rules for Yellow Pine Lumber.

The following rules for classifying and inspecting yellow pine lumber were adopted by the Georgia Interstate Saw Mill Association at a meeting held at Jacksonville, Fla., March 15, 1904, and by the South Carolina Lumber Association at a meeting held at Cheraw, S. C., on April 15. The rules took effect on July 1.

GENERAL RULES.—All lumber must be sound, well manufactured, full to size and saw butted; free from unsound, loose and hollow knots, worm and knot holes; through shakes, or round shakes that show on the surface; square edge, unless otherwise specified. A through shake is hereby defined to be through or connected from side to side, or edge to edge, or side to edge. In the measurement of dressed lumber the width and thickness of the lumber before dressing must be taken; less than one inch thick shall be measured as one inch.

CLASSIFICATION.

FLOORING.—Flooring shall embrace four and five quarter inches in thickness by three to six inches in width. For example: 1x3, 4, 5 and 6; 1¼x3, 4, 5 and 6.

BOARDS.—Boards shall embrace all thicknesses under 1½ ins. by 7 ins. and up wide, including 1½ ins. in thickness by 7 ins. in width. For example: ¾, 1, 1¼, and 1½ ins. thick, by 7 ins.and up, wide.

SCANTLING.—Scantling shall embrace all sizes from 2 to 5 ins. in thickness and 2 to 6 ins. in width. For example: 2x2, 2x3, 2x4, 2x5, 2x6, 3x3, 3x4, 3x5, 3x6, 4x4, 4x5, 4x6, 5x5, and 5x6.

PLANK.—Plank shall embrace all sizes from 1½ to 6 ins. in thickness, not including 6 ins. x 7 ins. and up in width. For example: 1½, 2, 2½, 3, 3½, 4, 4½, 5, 5¼, 5¾ x 7 ins. and up in width.

DIMENSION.—Dimension sizes shall embrace all sizes 6 ins. and up in thickness by 7 ins., and up in width, including 6x6. For example: 6x6, 6x7, 7x7, 7x8, 8x9, and up.

STEPPING.—Stepping shall embrace 1 to 2½ ins. in thickness by 7 ins. and up in width. For example: 1, 1¼, 1½, 2 and 2½ x 7 and up in width.

ROUGH EDGE OR FLITCH.—Rough edge or Flitch shall embrace all sizes 1 in. and up in thickness by 8 ins. and up in width, sawed on two sides only. For example: 1, 1½, 2, 3, 4, and up thick by 8 ins. and up wide, sawed on two sides only.

INSPECTION.

STANDARD.—All lumber shall be sound, sap no objection. Wane may be allowed one-eighth of the width of the piece measured across face of wane, extending one-fourth of the length on one corner or its equivalent on two or more corners.

MERCHANTABLE.—All sizes under 9 ins. shall show heart entire length on one side or edge; sizes 9 ins. and over shall show heart the entire length on two opposite sides. Wane may be allowed one-eighth of the width of the piece measured across face of wane and extending one-fourth of the length of the piece on one corner or its equivalent on two or more corners.

PRIME.—Scantling shall show heart on two faces the entire length; other sizes shall show two-thirds heart entire length on two opposite sides. On not exceeding 5% of the pieces, wane may be allowed one-eighth of the width of the piece measured across face of wane and extending one-fourth of the length of the piece on one corner or its equivalent on two or more corners.

The New Lien Law.

The new lien law, which in the Legislature was known as the Marshall bill, appears as an amendment to Section 112 of chapter 418 of the laws of 1897, relating to conditions and reservations in contracts for the sale of goods and chattels. The new portion provides that every such contract for the conditional sale of any goods and chattels attached, or to be attached, to a building, shall be void as against subsequent bona fide purchasers or encumbrancers of the premises on which said building stands, and as to them the sale shall be deemed absolute, unless, on or before the date of the delivery of such goods or chattels at such building, such contract shall have been duly and properly filed and indexed as directed in this article, and unless said contract shall contain a brief description, sufficient for identification, of the premises which said building occupies, or upon which said building stands, and if in a city or village its location by street number, if known, and if in a city or county where the block system of recording and indexing conveyances is in use, the section and block within which it is located.

The contracts are to be filed with the register of the city or the county clerk of the county in which the premises are situated. And where such contracts are for goods and chattels, attached or to be attached to a building, the following provisions apply to the endorsement, entry, refiling and discharge thereof. The above-named officers, with whom such contracts are directed to be filed, shall enter the future contingency or event required to occur before the ownership of said goods and chattels shall pass from the vendor to the vendee, the amount due upon such contract, and the time when due, and shall file every such contract presented to them for that purpose; and endorse thereon its number and time of receipt; they shall enter in a book provided for that purpose, in separate columns, the names of all the parties to each contract so filed, arranged in alphabetical order, under the head of vendees and vendors, the number of such contract and the date of the filing thereof, and under a column headed property, they shall enter a brief description sufficient for identification of the land upon which said building stands, and if in a city or village, its location by street and number, if known, and if in a city or county where the block system of recording and indexing conveyances is in use, the section and block in which the said land is situated. The said officers shall also keep an index, so as to afford correct and easy reference to the books containing the entries in regard to such last named contracts. In all cities and counties where the block system of recording and indexing conveyances is in use, the index shall be arranged according to the block numbers. A contract for the conditional sale of goods and chattels, attached or to be attached to a building, shall be invalid as against creditors of the conditional vendee and against subsequent purchasers or mortgagees in good faith of such goods and chattels or of the premises upon which the said building stands, after the expiration of the first or any succeeding term of one year, reckoning from the time of the first filing, unless: (1) within thirty days preceding the expiration of such term a statement containing a description of such contract, the names of the parties, the time when and place where filed, the interest of the conditional vendor or of any person who has succeeded to his interest in the property, claimed by virtue thereof; or (2) a copy of such contract and its endorsements, together with a statement attached thereto or endorsed thereon, showing the interest of the conditional vendor, or of any person who has succeeded to his interest in the contract, is filed in the office where the contract was originally required to be filed; and the officer with whom such contract was originally filed shall enter, in a separate column, in the book above provided for, in a column headed date of refiling, the date of the refiling of the said contract. The officers performing services under this article are entitled to receive the same fees as for like services relating to chattel mortgages. Upon the title to the goods and chattels affected by any such last mentioned contract becoming absolute in the conditional vendee or his successor in interest by the payment of the full consideration for which any such contract was made, the conditional vendor, his assignee or legal representative, upon the request of the conditional vendee or of any person interested in the property covered by such contract, must sign and acknowledge a certificate setting forth such payment. The officer with whom such contract is filed must, on receipt of such certificate, file the same in his office and write the word "discharged" in the book where the contract is entered, opposite the entry thereof, and the contract is thereby discharge. The law expressly states that the preceding section applies as well in the case of conditional sale or of contracts for the sale conditionally, of household goods, engines, dynamos, boilers, portable furnaces or boilers for heating purposes where the same are attached or affixed to a building or are, or are to be, furnished or supplied for a building with the intention that they shall be attached or affixed thereto.

Record and Guide Quarterly

The annual number of the Record and Guide Quarterly contains all the legal records for the past year concerning real estate and projected buildings, arranged alphabetically and numerically, with invaluable annotations. These are supplemented by tables of important transactions, with typical prices, covering the past quarter of a century or more, accompanied by expert comments; also by a list of realty corporations created during the past two years, with officers and the enterprises in which they are engaged. The whole makes a volume of reference which no real estate man can afford to be without. It should be on every desk and in every library. Its cost is as nothing compared to its value as a time-saver. This important work can be obtained, with three quarterly numbers, for the comparatively small sum of $20. It is published by the Record and Guide, at Nos. 14 and 16 Vesey St., where interested parties may see it and have its uses explained to them. If you cannot call, drop a postal card to the Publisher, or call him up on telephone 3157 Cortlandt.

BOROUGH OF BROOKLYN.

CONVEYANCES

Whenever the letters Q. C. and C. a. G. are preceded by the name of the grantee, they means as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed in which all right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants and warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing a Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or encumbered.

DYCKERHOFF PORTLAND CEMENT

is made in Germany. When first introduced in the United States, some twenty-five years ago, its superior strength, correct chemical composition and absolute uniformity were quickly appreciated and placed it above all other Cements in the market. The Dyckerhoff brand maintains the original superiority;—its perfection has not been approached by any other Cement.

Vol. LXXIV. JULY 23, 1904. No. 1897.

IN spite of reactions, Wall Street is evidently working itself up into a belief in higher prices, and its speculators are making steady progress in their effort to mark up quotations. They should beware, however, of going too fast. General conditions favor a gradual rather than a rapid recovery of purchasing power. Any effort to send prices up on the jump, while it might succeed for a while, would, in the end, be disastrous. The business temper of the country is plainly and rightly conservative. It does not favor extensive improvements, or the creation of any obligations other than those absolutely necessary. It favors rather the establishment of strong cash reserves and the reorganization of industries that were partly disorganized by a period of exhausting production. Moreover, during the fall an unusually large supply of money will be needed for moving the crops, and the high money rates which will ensue would put a quietus on any speculative movement. A complete restoration of values should not be anticipated until the new year, by which time the process of financial and industrial recuperation will have had time really to accomplish its purpose.

THE Rapid Transit Commission has performed a tardy act of justice to the Bronx in authorizing the construction of elevated roads on Jerome and Boston avenues. The importance of such extensions to the proper expansion of population in the Bronx cannot be over-estimated. The Borough differs from Manhattan in that it is very wide, and will need a large number of parallel and transverse rapid transit routes, in order fully to open up its territory. At present there is one elevated road in operation, which supplies a very insufficient service, and another soon to be in operation which will supply a better service. Additional lines on Jerome and Boston avenues will open up districts which are now comparatively inaccessible, and together with the improvements being made by the Central, the Harlem and the New Haven roads, and the prospective Portchester or Westchester company's tracks, should supply the needs of the Bronx for the next ten years, when it is likely to have a population of 750,000. What we do not quite understand, however, is how the large number of passengers collected by these six or seven transit routes north of the Harlem will be carried to the business district. Everything really depends upon this connection, because such a large proportion both of salaried employees and of employers necessarily work in the office and loft buildings of the lower part of Manhattan. Yet so far the provision made for carrying these passengers to the City Hall by means of an express service has been totally inadequate. The existing subway has two express tracks, but the proposed extension can have at most only one express track, which will prove to be a source of the utmost embarrassment when the road comes to be operated later. The difficulty is, of course, to find thoroughfares in Manhattan which will accommodate four tracks from one end of the island to the other; but there are at any rate two such thoroughfares, First avenue on the east side, and Central Park West, Eight avenue and Hudson street on the West. Four-track subways on these avenues will be necessary before the passengers collected in the Bronx can be properly transported to the Manhattan financial district.

THE Rapid Transit Commission are to be congratulated on the new offer of the New York and New Jersey Tunnel Company to connect their trolley tunnel with a terminus at 33rd street and Sixth avenue. The company, in offering to construct the subway twenty feet below the surface, and to make it capable of sustaining, if necessary, another subway above, has surely disarmed all plausible opposition. For our own part we believe that a shallow tunnel along Sixth avenue would be very preferable, particularly in view of the fact that the stations would be so largely used by women; but as long as the authorities object to a shallow tunnel for the New Jersey trolley cars, it is fortunate that the company can see its way clear to constructing a deeper subway profitably. We have dwelt so often on the value of this connection along Sixth avenue that we shall not repeat the arguments here, but we fully believe that this Sixth avenue trolley tunnel will eventually be of more use to more people than any Manhattan subway which may be constructed above it. Be it added that the use of deeper Sixth avenue for this purpose should be no reason for the abandonment of the 9th street connection. Both would be useful and desirable feeders to the New Jersey tunnel.

The Subway Opening.

THE definite assurance that the subway will be opened as far north as 145th street by September 1st has been received with the utmost satisfaction by the people of New York. They have had to submit to so many disappointments and delays in the past year that probably few west side business men believed that they would be riding underground to their offices by the time the cold weather began; but now there seems to be no reasonable chance for much further delay, and the subway will be operated through the larger part of its length in time to handle the heavy fall traffic. That it will be a success, so far as it goes, does not admit of a doubt. It will afford to the people of New York a clear, attractive, comfortable and safe means of transit, and they have confidence that it will be operated with the same freedom from serious accident characteristic of the operation of the Manhattan elevated roads. Of course, it will soon be very much overcrowded; but at least it will be overcrowded to some purpose. It will be adequate, if not in the quantity of accommodation it affords, at least in the quality of that accommodation. It will restore to the people of New York an abundance of comparatively cheap residential land within the old city limits, and will thus constitute the first step in the emancipation of the average New Yorker from the famine of accessible house-room under which he has suffered for more than a decade.

The probable effect of the subway and its subsequent extensions upon the domestic habits of the New Yorker is a fascinating subject for speculation; but for the present it is, of course, a mere matter of guess-work. That it will distribute population over a wider area is, of course, manifest, but how far New York will continue to be a city of tenement houses and how far it will drift into the condition of suburban bliss after the manner of so many western cities, all these are matters which will probably turn out very different from our predictions. What can be traced pretty well, however, is the effect which the subway has already had upon the trend of real estate and building operations in Manhattan and the Bronx.

This effect has been surprisingly small, considering the great necessity of the underground road, and the expectations which might have been based on its construction. Along its immediate route its effect has been so far depressing. The property-owners on Elm street have, through the construction of the tunnel, suffered years of cruel loss, for which there is no compensation as yet in sight. Those on 4th avenue, owing to the great width of that thoroughfare, have suffered less actual loss than the owners of real estate along other portions of its route; but, on the other hand, 4th avenue, during a period in which values in the central part of the city have been jumping, has not participated in the upward movement. It should be added, however, that certain cross-town streets in this vicinity on which stations are situated, such as 28th street, have been benefited somewhat by the prospective effects of the tunnel. On 42d street the property-owners have suffered heavily from the construction of the tunnel; but in this case there have been considerable compensations in the shape of increased values. How far these increased values would have in any event been achieved is an open question; but it is interesting that property-owners on 34th street have received even larger increases without any accompanying deductions. As to the Long Acre Square movement, that was undoubtedly influenced to some extent by the course of the subway down Broadway to 42d street and then east; but even if the tunnel had taken a different route, real estate in this district was obviously in the line of promotion.

The subway was intended particularly for the benefit of the west side, including Washington Heights; but it is a singular fact that during the whole period of construction real estate on the old west side has been duller than formerly. In 1899 a considerable building movement was in progress, particularly along the line of Broadway, and this movement has been subsiding ever since. While many owners of apartment houses on Broadway have lost many tenants because of subway construction, it may be doubted whether a single apartment house or residence has been built either on the west side or in Harlem in anticipation of the opening of the subway. Some of the big buildings in the 72d street district are the result of the express station on that street; but they really do not require any such explanation. As for Washington Heights, Mr. Barney and his associates bought large areas of vacant land in that district available for improvement without increasing prices very much, and in anticipation of an early building movement; but obviously these gentlemen began operations a year too soon. They have not succeeded in disposing of any of their holdings as yet; and the number of new buildings already planned for Washington Heights is small.

On the other hand, the section of the city which the subway does not touch at all is the section in which there has been most demand for new residential accommodation, viz., the east side. Both rents and tenement house values on the lower and the upper east side have been increasing in response to a lively demand for more house room on the part of its polyglot population—all this in a region which is remote from the subway. Of course, so far as the east side of the Bronx is concerned, much of the current building depends upon the service which is to be furnished by the Manhattan tunnel, but it should be added that much of it depends on local conditions and would have in any event taken taken place

Thus it will be seen that the subway has had comparatively little effect on real estate values and building in advance of its completion. The movements characteristic of the past few years were inevitable owing to certain other conditions, and would not have been much changed had the subway still been five years removed. By this we do not mean, of course, that the subway will not eventually have a determining influence on the course of real estate and building operations in New York, but it does afford an interesting illustration of the caution of property-owners and builders. They will not act in advance of the demand. Builders, particularly, live from hand to mouth, and must wait until the procession starts before getting into the ranks. It was the same way when the elevated railroads were built. They had been in operation six years before the west side movement began. No such interval between the cause and its effect will elapse in the present instance, but the comparative lack of influence of the subway up to date is a suggestive example of the unpredictable and uncertain nature of real estate and building operations.

ONCE again the people of this country have been experiencing the unpleasant effects of a strike in a well organized industry producing one of the necessities of life. They have been forced to pay prices for meat which were not actually necessary, and they have been threatened with the disagreeable possibility of still higher prices. It is the coal strike over again on a less serious scale; and it is incredible that in the long run public opinion will submit to the extortion and the deprivation which the partial or absolute tieing up of a great industry brings in its train. It was long thought that the proper method of treating industrial disputes was for the public authorities and public opinion to draw a ring around the combatants and allow them to fight it out, but such an attitude is no longer the one reasonably demanded by the plain facts of the situation. The interference of President Roosevelt in the coal strike was without precedent, but is was dictated by common sense and supported by public opinion. Its success depended absolutely on the fact that it was supported by public opinion. How the vital interests of the consumers can be protected by any legal machinery does not yet appear, for compulsory arbitration seems out of the question. But now that industries are organized on a national scale, and affect millions of people when they cease to operate, it is obvious that something must be done to protect the consumer, and that Americans will show a lack of political good sense in case a means is not found to this end. The situation is difficult and critical; but it is probably developing along lines which are more likely than any other to improve the relations between organized capital and organized labor. When the contending parties were unorganized or organized in a very small way, they could squabble with comparative impunity, and consequently they did squabble frequently over unimportant matters. These squabbles may be compared to the wars of Europe in the 18th century, in which the military forces of the several combatants were not sufficiently organized to produce a decisive result. On the other hand, the existing situation in respect to the conflict between capital and labor may be compared to the contemporary military situation in Europe. The cost of the warfare and the penalties of various kinds involved are so tremendous that nations fight only when they have something really important to fight about. A hard battle over a significant difference of opinion generally clears the air and does more good than harm. The tendency at the present time in this country is towards a state of things in which strikes will be rare, and when they occur so disastrous that the motive to avoid such tests of strength even on the part of the combatants will be intensified.

Arbitration Failed.

MASTER CARPENTERS AND JOURNEYMEN COULD NOT AGREE AS TO THE MEANING OF ARTICLE 15.

The trouble in the carpenter trade that broke out publicly on Monday may be settled to-day in so far as to send the men back to work pending arbitration. A lockout might have been avoided, even as late as Monday morning, had the order for the expulsion of the journeymen been rescinded when the reason for it was removed by Flint & Co.'s men giving in and returning to work. But the machinery of the Employers' guilotine had then been set in motion and could not be stopped. It was next thought that a settlement would be concluded within twenty-four hours, but no attempt at reconciliation was made until Thursday, and then a meeting between the special emergency committee of the Building Trades Employers' Association and a committee of the journeymen resulted in disagreement on the point which has become the principal one in the case.

Section 15 of the Plan of Arbitration reads in part: "The members of this association agree to employ members of the trades unions only, directly or indirectly." The employers hold that this refers only to work on buildings, while the journeymen say it means shop work as well. The issue arose some six weeks ago over the handling of non-union lumber for the firm of George C. Flint & Co., who had a sub-contract from the Remington Construction Co. for the trim of the new apartment house at the southeast corner of Fifth av and 60th st, and who instead of manufacturing it themselves purchased the material ready to fit in from a planing mill at Pawtucket, R. I., which besides being a non-union shop has the advantage of a cheaper wage scale. When the local carpenters refused to handle the stuff, or in other words struck, the case was temporarily settled by an agreement to arbitrate. A second strike against the material arose when the working force was increased, and again the journeymen were ordered by the officers of their union to return to work.

Seemingly the union authorities kept faith all the while, but some of the mechanics were slow in obeying the second order to return. While the job was yet not fully manned the Building Trades Association issued an ultimatum stating that unless the work was fully resumed on last Monday morning a lock-out would be declared against all carpenters employed by members of the association. Although the job was not manned at eight o'clock, it was at eleven, but in the meantime the expulsion order had been issued. "It is true," says a statement issued by the Building Trades Employers' Association, "that the terms of the ultimatum were observed, but it was then too late. Daniel Featherson, secretary of the District Council of the carpenters, came around at eleven o'clock and straightened out matters, but the ultimatum could not be rescinded. The men were locked out at noon and paid off at one o'clock."

By Thursday morning the ultimatum had been very fully observed, but still some of the employers had not yet laid off their men. The employers declare that the Flint job must be manned before the complaint of the journeymen can be again submitted to arbitration. The journeymen retort that before they will return to work again there must be a satisfactory interpretation of Article 15.

WHERE ARBITRATION FAILED.

When the case was first submitted to arbitration a few weeks ago, which was when Flint's men first struck against the Pawtucket material, a deadlock resulted, which explains why the case has gone to such extremes. The simple fact seems to be that arbitration failed, at least for the time being, to bring reconciliation. As the employers claimed that Article 15 referred only to work on buildings, and the operatives asserted that it covered shop work as well, the jury was hung, as they say up in Orange County, and there was no verdict.

The committees representing the two sides will meet again this (Saturday) morning. At a meeting of the journeymen's district council on Friday night full power and instructions were given to their arbitration committee. While it is hoped that an order for the men to resume work may result from this morning's conference, it is realized that the fundamental question is an important one and that final determination may be yet a long way off.

THE EMPLOYERS' SIDE.

The chairman of the special emergency committee of the Building Trades Employers' Association, speaking for the Record and Guide, on Wednesday, said: "We were playing fair, and we want to continue to play fair. If the Arbitration Plan means anything, it means no cessation of work. It does not mean that they can single out one employer from many and order a strike against him without giving any opportunity for arbitration. The Employers' Association is not going to stand for that. We are ready to go the limit in talking things over to bring about an arbitration of the matter, but we will not stand for high-handed methods. We do not know how many carpenters were at work when this strike was ordered, as only a small proportion of the employers have made reports giving the exact number of men laid off. We estimate the number at between four and five thousand.

"About ninety firms are represented in the Master Carpenters' Association, including the principal concerns in the trade; but the present order is not only to Master Carpenters, but to every member of the greater association who ordinarily employs carpenters. The large general contracting firms are included. Every member on the Building Trades Employers' Association has been ordered to lay off every carpenter in his employ who is working within a radius of twenty-five miles of the City Hall. We have not yet asked the assistance of the Building Trades Employers' Association of the Bronx or the Builders' League of Brooklyn."

Asked if negotiations were in progress for a settlement of the trouble, the chairman said: "This is not a time when there can be any negotiations. We simply ask them to return to work, to man the job on which they struck. We have a committe for conference and we understand that they have one also, but they are not ready to go back to work. We cannot arbitrate while they are on strike. The case of the employers is now in charge of the special emergency committee of the Building Trades Employers' Association."

Mr. Leonard K. Prince, of the Prince Iron Works, Vice-President of the Employers, said on Thursday: "I have perfect confidence in the ability of our association to handle this matter. I think good sense will prevail among the journeymen and that both sides will get together and be nice. As I understand, the members have displayed great loyalty to the organization. The situation is simply this: We, as employers, have entered into an agreement with the labor party, and our principle now is the same as ever; either we do business under that agreement or we don't do a thing."

"What is your interpretation of Article 15, Mr. Prince?"

"It was distinctly understood that the agreement refers only to work on buildings," replied the vice-president.

THE JOURNEYMEN'S SIDE.

Secretary Featherson, of the Manhattan District Council of the Brotherhood of Carpenters, when interrogated for the Record and Guide on Wednesday, estimated the number of carpenters idle through the lockout at from six to eight hundred only.

"The Master Carpenters do not control the situation by any means," he added. "They are in the minority. Only about sixty-five firms are enrolled in the association. Altogether in Greater New York there are about fifteen thousand carpenters. What proportion of these were employed when this trouble began, I cannot say. At least two-thirds, I estimate, notwithstanding the dull times in Manhattan. Many who have been locked out here have obtained work this week in Brooklyn.

"We actually observe the terms of the ultimatum of the Building Trades Employers' Association, but in spite of that we were locked out. Being here late the night before, we did not receive the notice in time to comply at the hour specified, but we were manning the job at the time of the lockout. We have a committee of five ready to negotiate, but before we go back to work again we want an interpretation of Article 15 of the Arbitration Plan. We want to know what they mean by it.

"Yes, this question of non-union or outside trim is of long standing, and perhaps this is a good time to settle it. It is unfair when one contractor must estimate at New York labor prices, while another can estimate on the basis of outside prices. George C. Flint & Co., after winning this contract, instead of making the trim themselves ordered it from the Kingsley Company at Pawtucket, who employ non-union labor. One of the results of this for journeymen is that while two months ago Flint & Co. had eighty men in their shop, they now or recently had only four."

On Thursday Mr. Featherson said he would not change his estimate of the number of men thrown out. A few had been added by the new order, extending the bounds of the lockout to a radius of twenty-five miles of the City Hall, but the total number was covered by his estimate of the day before. He would get reports from which he could tell exactly in a day or two. He said that he was not able to answer whether all the employers had obeyed the lockout order or not, but he presumed they had, seeing they were under bonds to do so.

An Expert's Opinion Regarding Fireproofed Wood.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I do not regard fireproofed wood as now manufactured and used as the final solution of the problem of fireproofing the interior finish of buildings, and I wish that some perfect substitute could be found. Fireproofed wood has always certain disadvantages, and is therefore never completely satisfactory. It is rather difficult to work, must be handled with very great care, and there is frequently uncertainty as to the durability of the finish. The process is a difficult and complicated one, and is only successful when done most conscientiously; and, as it is very difficult to inspect the material properly and thoroughly, the architect must depend on the character and honesty of the people who treat the wood.

The opportunities for avoiding thoroughness and using half-treated wood are very numerous. The permanency of the treatment has never been absolutely determined, although perfectly treated wood has shown no deterioration. The effect of the chemical treatment on the structure of the wood has not been determined, and this is a grave question which should have attention. I have seen wood that has apparently lost its strength on account of the fireproofing treatment. The finishing of fireproofed wood has not received sufficient attention, and some method should be devised for handling and finishing wood so treated as to insure a permanent finish.

If I were building a high building at this time I would undoubtedly use fireproofed wood, but I would endeavor to make all of the conditions surrounding it absolutely ideal—conditions which would involve certainty as to its treatment, as to its inspection, as to the methods of handling in the shops and especially as to the temperature and dryness of the building in which it was used. Under conditions which I could absolutely control I would use this material if treated by people in whom I had confidence.

As to substitutes, I know of none which are entirely satisfactory. The truth of the whole matter is that the large question of making the finish and furniture of buildings fireproof has never been adequately studied, and it is undoubtedly the weakest point in our present-day construction.

Art and Economy in Building.

In no way is the progress of the day more clearly shown than in our homes. Recent years have seen great changes in home building that have improved the appearance, increased the comfort and reduced the cost. With discriminating taste and good judgment in selecting, the modest home can be made almost as attractive in appearance and as comfortable as the mansion. "ENAMETILE" presents a striking example of this. Its finish is like that of ceramic tile. It is made in rich colors and artistic designs, is sanitary, will not crack or break, and costs only a third as much as tile. Credit is due the New York Metal Ceiling Co., by whose untiring efforts "ENAMETILE" has been perfected. The use of metal ceilings is rapidly growing. Progressive architects and builders who have made a study of their possibilities are constantly finding new places where metal ceilings can be used advantageously. When combined with stucco work, artistic effects in decorative schemes can be produced that have no superior. No better idea of the range of this work or its possibilities can be had than from the catalogue of the New York Metal Ceiling Co.

Personal.

The City Civil Service Corps lost an efficient member by the death by drowning on Saturday, July 16th, of Edward P. Keenan, who was Building Superintendent Hopper's expert accountant in the Manhattan Bureau of Buildings. He had gone to the Hudson to enjoy the half-holiday, and a boat in which he and an acquaintance were rowing either capsized or was run down by a passing vessel, and the men were lost. Mr. Keenan was 35 years old, and was a protege of Supreme Court Justice Blanchard. He was appointed to a clerkship by Building Commissioner T. J. Brady, having previously made an excellent record in the Federal postal service. His department work, as assistant to William H. Class, the Chief Clerk, was marked by exceptional neatness, accuracy and dispatch. He enjoyed the confidence of the Department heads, and the friendship of the employees. He was a member of Leader Scannell's Seneca Club, of the Democratic Committee of the 25th Assembly District, the I. D. K. Club, the Knights of Columbus, and the Associated Employees of the Building Bureaus, which include all the attaches of the Building Bureaus in the great city. He leaves a widow and a child.

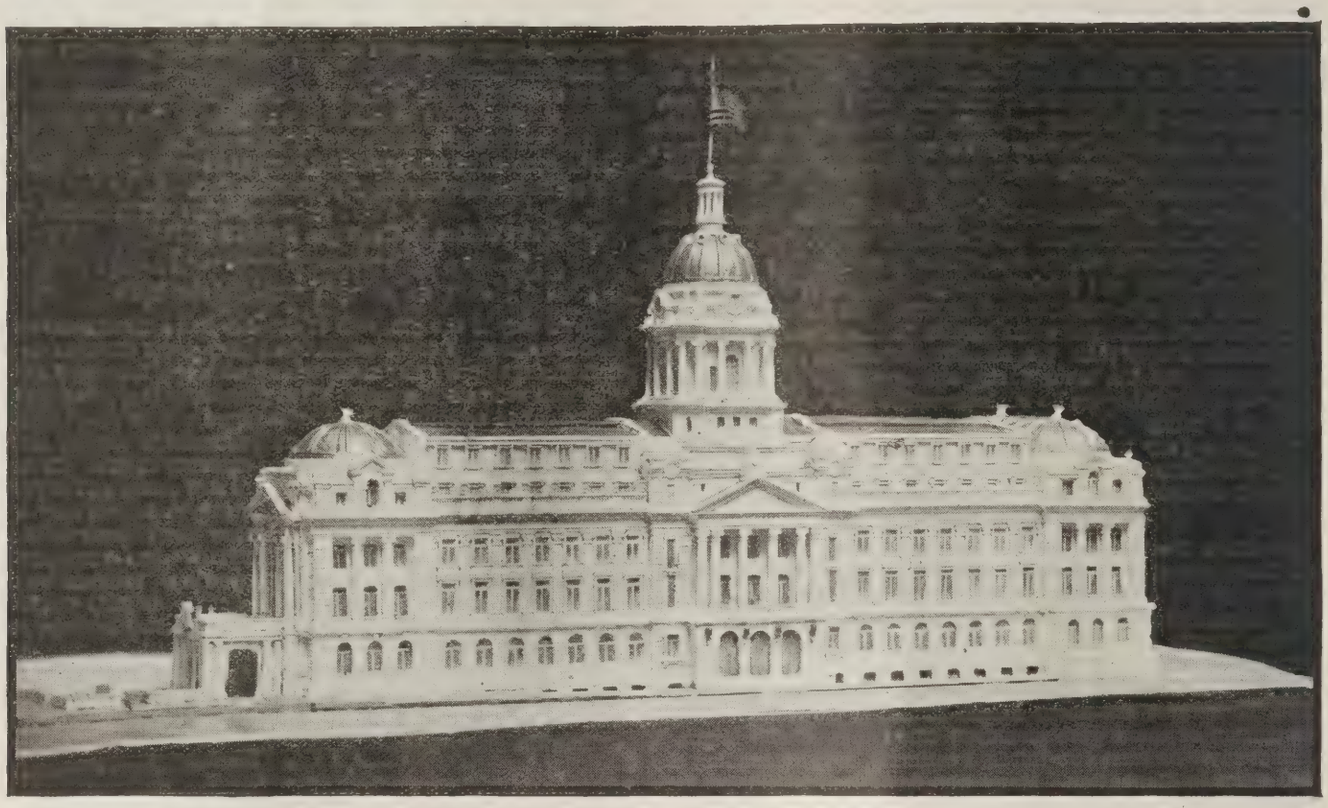
E. M. Lee, formerly Chief Engineer of the Tidewater Building Co., has resigned his position with that company to take a similar position with S. Fischer Miller, contractor for steel and iron construction, with offices in the St. James Building, room 1514 26th st and Broadway, city. Mr. Lee had a wide range of experience in designing and erecting steel structures of all kinds, and is in charge of Mr. Miller's engineering department, assuming this position on the 27th of June. A. M. Haney, for many years in charge of the erection of steel work for the Elmira Bridfe Co., the Pencoyd Bridge Co., anl later the American Bridge Co., and for two years superintendent of the erection of steel work for the Tidewater Building Co., has resigned his position to take charge of the erection of all the steel work in connection with the business of S. Fischer Miller. Mr. Haney is at present in Richmond, Va., superintending the erection of the steel work for the Mutual Assurance Society, who are building from the plans of Messrs. Clinton & Russell, architects, this city, a 9-story, basement and sub-basement office building, 105x153 feet, requiring nearly 2,000 tons of structural material. The structural steel and ornamental ironwork being carried on by Mr. S. Fischer Miller.

New Building for Police Headquarters.

The bids for the new headquarters building for the police, which is to be constructed on Centre st, between Broome and Grand sts, were opened at the office of the Commissioner of Police at 2 o'clock on Wednesday of this week, and were as follows:

P. W. Finn, $1,247,000; T. B. Leahy, $935,544; The Thompson-Starrett Co., $946,000; Murphy Bros., $939,000; P. Gallagher, $819,450; J. H. Parker, $814,950; P. J. Carlin, $899,400; Murphy Construction Co., $849,000; P. Sullivan, $873,000; Herman Probst $874,700; Water & O'Connell, $775,000 (low bid).

The architects, Messrs. Hoppin, Koen and Huntington, hope to see construction work begun in September. The estimated cost is $750,000. The materials to be used for the exterior walls have not been definitely decided upon. This will depend upon the amount of money available. The building will cover the entire block, and will, therefore, be shaped like a flatiron. It will be 308 feet in length with an average width of 65 feet. The apex of the dome will be 175 feet above the street. There is to be a basement, a sub-basement, and five stories above ground. The basement will probably be of granite, and the facade of limestone. Brick may be used in the rear exterior wall. The architects hope to use limestone throughout.



In the interior, the main entrance is to be of American marble in panels. Marble caps with bronze caps are to relieve the bareness of the hall. There will be a railing of wrought iron to the marble staircase which is to wind from the main entrance to the base of the dome. The pavement of the entrance hall is to be of marble. Marble tiling will be used in the north and south corridors, marble terraza in the other corridors, except in the basement, for which cement will be specified. The interior trimming will be of the simplest. The walls in general are to be of plaster. Oak panneling is to be used in the Court rooms and in the Commissioner's room. The dome will be of gilded bronze, the drum of the dome is of terra cotta, colored like limestone. A porte-cochere on the north side is intended to insure that privacy of approach which is frequently desirable, and, now despite the best efforts, usually unobtainable.

An electric plant for power and lighting will be in the sub-basement. The offices of the property clerk and a thoroughly equipped assembly room for the detectives will be in the basement. There is also to be a shooting gallery 100 yards long, the most extensive in New York, in this basement. The detective bureau, the records of this bureau, the Rogues' Gallery and the rooms for the examination of witnesses and suspected persons will take the first floor; the executive rooms of the department, the Commissioner's room and the rooms of the Deputy Commissioners, the Chief Inspector, the Borough Inspector and the Chief Clerk will go on the second floor, that of the Commissioner being in the northern end of the building.

The third floor will contain the offices of the Treasurer, the Auditors and surgeons, and two large trial rooms for the examination and decision of charges made against the members of the force. The fourth floor will be given up for the most part to a large armory and drill room and to a thoroughly equipped gymnasium. The baths and lockers for the police are to be on this floor.

There will be forty-five dry, well lighted and ventilated steel prison cells on the fifth floor. Those detained will be insured privacy. Brought through an alley on the eastern side of the building they will be taken through a corridor to an elevator, neither of which will be used by the public. The matron's quarters, the photographer's studio, the rooms where the prisoners will be measured and the bath rooms where they will be washed, are on this floor. The dome will not be merely ornamental. There is to be a signal tower. The quarters for the Department telegraphers are directly below. They are isolated so as to make them hard to reach. In the remote possibility of the lower floors being occupied by others than those rightfully in power the telegraphers will still, for a time, be in touch with the world outside.

An unusual amount of thought and labor has been given to the design, which is of the Georgian period of English architecture. Mr. Francis L. V. Hoppin, of Hoppin, Koen and Huntington, while working at it, traveled extensively to study buildings used for police purposes. He has tried to create an edifice which should fulfill the purpose for which it was to be used, and at the same time be thoroughly suggestive of municipal architecture to design a building which should not only be the headquarters of the police, but like our City Hall should stand for dignity, repose and good taste. Mr. Hoppin has striven to make the building stately, but thoroughly dignified in its simplicity. The severe exterior will be relieved only by a terrace on the fourth floor and by a group of five allegorical figures representing the five boroughs of New York. The coat-of-arms of the city will be over the main entrance. A large clock with four faces is to be placed below the dome.

Paris Prize of the Society of Beaux-Arts Architects.

There is now on exhibition at the Fine Arts Society Building the competition drawings for the Paris prize given by the Society of Beaux-Arts Architects. This Society has, for some years past, been doing a great deal for the education of architectural draughtsmen, not only in New York, but all through the country, having branches in many of the large cities. It is composed of men who have studied at the Ecole des Beaux Arts in Paris, and imbued with the system pursued there, they have sought to find and develop the talented men which this country produces, those who are unable to profit by the courses in architecture given at the universities, or who seek to study untrammelled by the prescribed courses of a college curriculum. The idea of the Society in this prize has been to send a man to study at the Ecole des Beaux Arts, who shall have been chosen from the country at large, as is chosen the winner of the Prix de Rome in France, and who does not represent merely the traditions of some one technical school. To accomplish this a series of competitions were instituted, by which all competitors but five were eliminated, to work on a final design which is now on exhibition. These five are Messrs. W. D. Crowell, E. H. Lebeis, W. T. L. Armstrong, Lucian E. Smith and G. A. Licht.

The Society, in its efforts at education, has been warmly seconded by a number of prominent people who have always been identified with the art movements of New York, and who have subscribed liberally to help its work. These are: Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, and Messrs. Charles T. Barney, Clarence H. Mackay, J. Pierrepont Morgan, Levi P. Morton, A. D. Juilliard, Edward J. Berwind, J. T. Woodward, Eben Wright, J. H. Smith, Charles Lanier, Henry Walters, William K. Vanderbilt and Lloyd Warren.

The present and final competition was decided on Thursday by a jury consisting of Messrs. Thomas Hastings, Ernest Flagg, E. L. Masqueray, Edward P. Casey, W. B. Chambers, Walter Cook, A. W. Lord, A. A. Stoughton, Ed. L. Tilton, S. P. B. Trowbridge, John Van Pelt, C. C. Zantzinger, T. E. Blake, W. A. Boring, J. R. Pope and Howard Greenley. George A. Licht, who is a student in the office of J. H. Freedlander, is the winner of the competition. The fellowship, which is awarded for the first time, amounts to $2,000, and includes the trip to Europe.

Gossip of the Week.

Seventy-five sales are the total of the business reported this week for both Manhattan and the Bronx, fifty-four of these being in Manhattan and twenty-one in the Bronx. For the same week last year the figures were fifty-four and four respectively. The important item of the week's news is of course the purchase by Harry J. Luce (of Park & Tilford) of the Scovill property at 667 to 671 5th av. There were several interesting rumors of important transactions closed, but investigation shows that while one is nearly at the closing stage the other two are far from it, this however is only an incident of a summer market.

Mr. Southack built the present building, which he occupied as a dwelling. A restriction was imposed—still in force—that no building should be put up higher than that on the northwest

A number of men prominent in real estate have agreed to deliver lectures before the class to be held at the West Side Young Men's Christian Association the coming season under the direction of Henry Harmon Neill, who is organizing a real estate school. James L. Wells, ex-President of the Department of Taxes, will speak on taxes and assessments. Robert E. Simon of L. J. Phillips & Co. will lecture on mortgage loans. Other speakers during the season will be John L. Parish of Parish, Fisher, Mooney & Co.; Frederick G. Hobbs of Slawson & Hobbs, Francis E. Ward, President of the Board of Real Estate Brokers; John R. Foley, Abraham Stern, Charles E. Schuyler, and Arthur S. Cox. The lecture course will continue from October to March.

Real Estate Notes.

D. Colucci & Co. have leased for R. E. Kempner to a client for 3 years, at an annual rent of $2,000 158 East 118th st, a 5-sty dwelling.

H. B. Goldberg is the buyer of the 6-sty flat, with stores, southwest corner of Greenwich av and Jane st, recently sold by Chas. E. Duross.

E. V. Pescia & Co. have leased for Miss Elvira Purdy the two 5-sty tenements 337-339 East 23d st, for a term of fifteen years, at the aggregate rental of $41,800.

A & C. Levis were the brokers in the sale of the two 6-sty apartment houses on the south side of 107th st, 25 feet east of Manhattan av, reported in our issue of July 9. Robert M. Silverman, owner and builder.

Polizzi & Co. have leased for Max Kotzen the 6-sty double tenement, 20 and 29½ Cornelia st, for a term of five years, at a gross rental of $28,000, for Giuseppe Ferri, the 5-sty double tenement 338 East 11th st, for two years, at a gross rental of $4,800.

Julius Friend has leased for a long term of years for Edward A. Morrison, to Mr. Kaufman, the entire building 1279 Broadway; for Sonn Bros., 5,000 square feet in the new building 4 and 6 Washington Place; for J. Searle Barclay, Jr., to Chas. Rosenzweig, the entire building, southwest corner of Spring and Wooster streets, for a long term of years.

The Equitable Life Assurance Society of the United States has loaned to the corporation erecting the new building at No. 111 Broadway, on the site of the recent Trinity building, $175,000 on each $300,000 of the cost of construction, or two-thirds of the total cost of the building. The total loan is $1,600,000, for a term of one year, at four and one-half per cent.

A hearing will be granted by the Board of Estimate on September 30 in regard to laying out a park at the Southern Boulevard, Pelham and Crotona avenues. The new Fordham Hospital is to be located on a plot of ground north of Pelham avenue and west of Crotona avenue. The triangular plot of land which it is proposed to convert into a public park will, therefore, intervene between the new hospital and Southern Boulevard, which in turn is adjacent to Bronx Park. The object of including this triangle in the park lands is undoubtedly to prevent the erection of any private buildings between the hospital and the park.

Adjustable Window Shades.

An increasing number of buildings are being fitted with adjustable window shades, and the several more important reasons for their adoption seem to be making a decided impression on owners and architects. Light and ventilation from the top of the window, as well as from the bottom sash, is an at once apparent advantage that has decided their use in schoolrooms and public halls. The demand now comes from residences, apartment houses, where the regular window shade, made adjustable by the special fixtures, have been used instead of inside blinds. The Knapp Adjustable Shade Co., of No. 1 Union square, will call and make a demonstration of their adjastable shade, and give estimates of the cost of their fittings to use with present shades on any size windows. A card will bring full information.

The Fireproofing Ordinance.

Mayor McClellan has as yet neither approved nor disapproved the fireproofing ordinance. He has until next Tuesday to veto it, and unless he does so the measure will then become a law. Mr. McClellan has had the ordinance before him since the 28th of June. The general belief is that he will not interpose his official objection, but for at least two reasons he may yet do so, and it is surmised that he is taking legal counsel in regard to one.

The implied objection of the Building Department, and the fact that that department was not officially consulted when the bill was framed, as pointed out by former Asst. Corporation Counsel Fleming, may be an insurmountable objection under the charter. The other point is that the new ordinance permits the use of wood for outside window frames. To the minds of many this alone is sufficient reason for official disapproval.

Then, the opposition of most builders and architects, and the charges which they bring against fireproof wood itself, are also matters to be considered.

Superintendent of Buildings Peter J. Collins, of Brooklyn, and former Superintendent Calder, have both expressed themselves publicly as opposed to the enactment of the ordinance. The trade unions have expressed no opinion on the subject.

A Water Famine Threatened.

A number of civic organizations, headed by the City Club, unite in calling the attention of the Mayor and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment to "the grave danger" confronting the city of New York because of lack of provision for an adequate water supply. The other organizations are the Manufacturers' Association, the Citizens' Union, the Brooklyn League, the New York Board of Trade and Transportation, the Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Fire Underwriters, and the Flatbush Taxpayers' Association, Mr. Lawrence Veillier acting as general secretary.

The letter recites that the consumption of Croton water in Manhattan and the Bronx in 1903 was about 270,000,000 gallons per day on the average. The area of the Croton water-shed above the new dam is 360.4 square miles, and the safe yield of this water-shed during dry years, after the new reservoir will be completed, will not exceed 750,000 to 800,000 gallons per day per square mile, or from 270,000,000 to 288,000,000 gallons per day.

In a dry season, such as occurred several times between 1880 and 1898, and which is sure to occur again, the total supply of Croton water for Manhattan and the Bronx under present conditions would not be more than 250,000,000 gallons per day—that is, 20,000,000 gallons per day less than the city is actually using at the present time. The serious consequence of such a condition of affairs, not only to the business and financial interests of the city but to the health and safety of the community as well, need not be dwelt upon.

Even with the work on the Cornell Dam and the Jerome Park Reservoir finished, the total yield in a dry year would not exceed 270,000,000 gallons per day, which is the amount of water that is now being used in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx.

In spite of the saving from waste made in recent years and even with the loss of water from this source diminshed, the consumption of water in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx is increasing each year at the rate of 7,000,000 gallons per day.

During the 13 years prior to 1903 the consumption of Croton water in the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx has increased from 140,000,000 gallons to 270,000,000 gallons, or an average yearly increase of about 10,000,000 gallons per day. The consumption of Croton water, therefore, during the next 5 years in Manhattan and the Bronx will be about—

During 1904 from 277,000,000 to 280,000,000 gallons per day.
During 1905 from 284,000,000 to 290,000,000 gallons per day.
During 1906 from 291,000,000 to 300,000,000 gallons per day.
During 1907 from 298,000,000 to 310,000,000 gallons per day.
During 1908 from 305,000,000 to 320,000,000 gallons per day.

Without provision for an increased supply of water to meet this increase of consumption, a water famine will surely result with the first dry season.

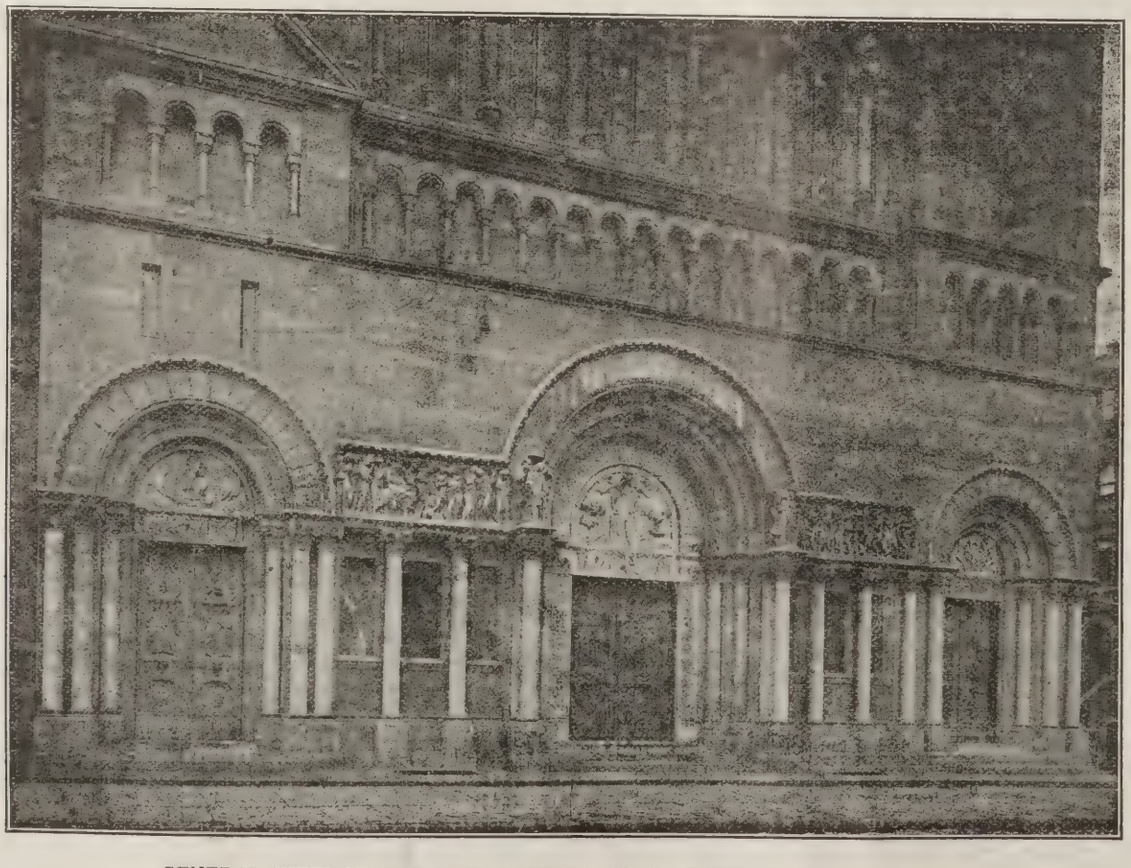
The situation in the Borough of Brooklyn and in the Boroughs of Queens and Richmond is almost equally serious. Within a few years the entire sources of additional supply for these boroughs will have been exhausted.

SOURCES OF ADDITIONAL SUPPLY.

Except for a possible increase for the Borough of Brooklyn, the available sources of additional water supply for the entire city (within the State of New York) lie to the north and northwest of the present Croton water-shed. To get water from any of these sources, it is necessary in every case to build a tunnel through the mountainous country north of the Croton water-shed. Under the most favorable conditions, it will take five years to build this tunnel. Existing law gives the city power to condemn for its water supply land in any part of the State, except in Dutchess and Suffolk counties. The city has the financial ability and the legal power to build the tunnel through which the additional water supply must be brought.

TO SUM UP:

The letter concludes: "The city's dire need of more water is known. The available sources of additional water supply are known. A Commission composed of three of the most competent and best equipped experts in the country has reported complete and thoroughly worked out plans which, if carried out intelligently, will within the shortest possible time bring these sources within reach of the city and furnish an adequate supply of water to every one of its boroughs. The city has ample legal power to begin the work at once.



"We would respectfully submit that your honorable Board should either adopt the plans submitted in November, 1903, by the Commissioner on Additional Water Supply, or should promptly give most cogent reasons for rejecting these plans."

Principles of City Land Values.

PRINCIPLES OF CITY LAND VALUES. By Richard M. Hurd, President of the Lawyers' Mortgage Insurance Co. 8vo., pp. 160. Price, $1.50. Published by the Record and Guide, 14-16 Vesey St., New York City.

(From the Los Angeles (Cal.) Times.)

In the logical sequence of the general plan, the book is admirable. Beginning with the consideration of the basis of urban land values and the general laws of development, it next takes up the forces originally creating cities and determining their location, and from this subject proceeds to an analysis of growth for business and residence. Principles at the root of the growth of Los Angeles, among other cities, are touched upon, though not elaborately studied. * * * In carrying out his plan, Mr. Hurd has evidently done his work regardless of expense in time and labor, for the finished book belongs to the very small class of those that satisfy the student by the care and completeness with which the subject matter is handled. * * * The conclusions reached are of the greatest interest from the points of view both of the theorist and the practical business man.

Material Market.

LUMBER.

Many retail lumber yards in the metropolitan district are exceedingly busy; those in Manhattan will, no doubt, be affected by the lock out of carpenters. No complaints are heard from the wholesale trade. Quite a large amount of lumber is moving, and prices continue to hold their firm basis. As a matter of fact, the general proposition seems to be to "stand pat" during the summer and early fall, expecting that with a settlement of the present political controversy business will not only speedily adjust itself, but continue in satisfactory volume as far ahead as can be intelligently discerned.

BRICK.

Twenty-seven million bricks were sold on the wholesale market last week, and prices are rising above the seven-dollar mark, which was for a month or more the paramount value. Anything worthy of being called good brick is bringing that price this week, while the best commands $7.25. Not since 1899 has the requirement for Hudson River brick been so large as it has this season.

STRUCTURAL IRON AND STEEL.

The second half of the contract for supplying the steel castings for the Pennsylvania tunnel under the East River has been accepted by Davies, Thomas & Co., of Catasauqua, Pa., who also obtained the first half of the contract, with the privilege of the whole. The firm have now decided to exercise their privilege.

The Catasauqua concern has awarded its contracts for the pig iron needed for its castings to the Empire Steel & Iron Co. of Catasauqua, and Thomas Iron Co. of Hokendauqua, Pa., and the Wharton Iron Works of Wharton, N. J. Each of these three companies will receive one-third of the contract.

Following the general advance in the prices of southern iron the offerings of northern grades are also being more firmly maintained by the majority of producers. A few small furnaces continue to make slight concessions, but the average prices asked for No. 2 X northern foundry are about $14 to $14.50. Forge, basic and bar iron are also more firmly held. The general feeling appears to be that prices are as low as they will go this year, but sales are small and within narrow limits. Steel billets are quite, but there is less disposition to shade prices.

IMPROVEMENT IN THE CEMENT TRADE.

The managers of a leading cement company, whose office is in New York City reports that since July 1 there has been a marked increase in activity in all lines of cement handled by them; that their orders in the first half of the month were twice what they were in July a year ago, and that the demand for prompt shipments has necessitated their putting on a night gang of packers. They also report that they know of other cement companies engaging packers for night work. Another cement company that is shipping largely will have its storehouses emptied, at present rate of shipments, by September 1.

Mr. Albert Mayer of the Vulcanite Cement Co., Fuller building, said this week: "Business is moving fairly well with us, so far as shipments are concerned. We ran full all last month and at the same time reduced our stock. But in spite of this, prices are still below cost. We have been working day and night, but that is customary in cement mills under ordinary circumstances. So far as prices are concerned, the market is demoralized, and the condition is due to the manufacturers themselves and their policy of cutting each others' throats. They could just as well have a better state of affairs, and it would not be necessary to form a trust either. The meeting which was called to be held in Atlantic City has been postponed, but will be held soon."

Mr. W. H. Hendrickson, of Hiram Snyder & Co., 229 Broadway, agents for the Lehigh Cement Co., is ill with typhoid fever, it is needless to say seriously. Mr. Hendrickson's fine character and prominence in the trade makes this announcement a particularly regrettable one.

MARBLE.

One by one our illusions drop from us. The prejudice so long entertained by workers and dealers in marble against the marbles of America, either for architectural or statuary purposes, is being dismissed from the mind. The purity and solidity of the white marble from the Rutland quarries is now acknowledged in Europe as well as in America, as we read in the Stone Trades Journal of London, and all that part of Vermont has been named the "American Carrara." It is well adapted to the needs of sculpture as to the finer forms of architectural ornamentation, and almost all the statuary now executed in this country, especially if it is intended for a public building, is carved from blocks of Rutland marble. Much of the common Carrara marble is of a bluish color, and therefore, unfit for statuary purposes. The Cambrian beds of Vermont, forming headlands and cliffs along the shore of Lake Champlain, extend from Canada southward for about 90 miles. Though nowhere more than a few miles broad, they have a total thickness of not less than 10,000 ft. Included in these beds are thick layers of a beautifully mottled red and white dolomite, now extensively used for architectural purposes.

Of Interest to the Building Trades.

Bensonhurst, Bath Beach and every other little place throughout the Thirtieth and Thirty-first Wards of Brooklyn are awaiting a busy fall season.

Building operations are going on all through Flatbush section, and if the prices of labor and material are still high, they are apparently having but little effect on the plans of the individual speculators and the land improvement companies.

Philadelphia builders are among those operating in the Brownsville district of Brooklyn. Hundreds of 2-family, semi-detached dwellings are projected for this season. McNulty & Fitzgerald report the sale of 414 lots in the section. Wood, Harmon & Co. are large buyers.

The Fuller Co. has men at work with steam drills day and night on the site of the future hippodrome on the east side of 6th av, from 43d to 44th sts, formerly occupied by the old car barns and for some time past vacant. The building, which will be 3 stories high, will cover a plot 200.7½x239.10½, and is estimated to cost $400,000.

East New York, in anticipation of the completion of the Williamsburg Bridge, is growing fast. The sales recorded in the spring have developed into numbers of substantial dwellings occupied by a select class of tenants. There is a startling difference between the kind of buildings going up in the eastern part of the Twenty-sixth Ward of Brooklyn, and those in the Brownsville section.

The site of the new Brunswick Hotel, 5th av, from 25th to 26th sts, has been enclosed with a high board fence. All but one of the old buildings have been demolished, though the debris has not been entirely removed. Test borings have been made to determine the character of the soil. The work has been long delayed, contracts not having been let, because the project was not completely financed. Recently, however, the property was heavily mortgaged, and it is now expected that work will proceed without further delay. Across the street the 27th and 28th st series of hotels is further advanced. The old stables and dwellings have been demolished, sites cleared, excavations dug, pier footings laid, and brick dividing walls have been started.

The Hawkins Iron Construction Co., at 66 Fulton av, L. I. City (Astoria), telephone No. 161 Astoria, is now rounding out the sixth year of its existence. The shops and office are near the 92d st ferry from New York City, and are easy of access to all work in the Borough of Manhattan and Bronx, being midway between the upper and lower part of the city. They are equipped for high-class ornamental iron work, and have jobs under the best architects of New York City to point to as reference. They have just installed a new power punching and coping machine, and are equipped to quickly punch, cope, and frame the largest structural work, either from their own or customers' material. Telephone or letter orders for anchors, bridle irons and all kinds of fittings will be filled the next day after receipt. The following are some of the contracts the company now has in hand: Outside iron stairs for Children's Home, Mineola, L. I.; ornamental iron work for the bird house, Bronx Park; trusses for ammunition building at Sandy Hook; loft at Grand and Orchard sts, Cleverdon & Putzel, archs.; ornamental iron work for factory, Cranberry and Henry sts, Brooklyn; dwelling house at 105 East 69th st, Trowbridge & Livingston, archs.; dwelling at 47 East 72d st, H. A. Jacobs, arch.; dwelling at 42 East 52d st, Schickel & Ditmars, arch.; office building, 105th st and Broadway, W. T. Robbins, arch.; dwelling at 255 Fifth av, Jas. L'Hommedieu, arch.; dwelling at 85th st and Riverside Drive, Harde & Short, archs.; dwelling at 1034 Fifth av, Wm. Strom, arch.; office building, 421 West Broadway, Thos. Lamb, arch.; office building, No. 1 West 22d st, Schickel & Ditmars, arch.; Carnegie Library, College Point, L. I., Heins & La Farge, archs.

Questions and Answers.

THE WATER TAX QUESTION.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A leases store to B for one year as a liquor saloon, rent to be paid monthly. B, in said lease, agreed to pay A the water tax on bar when due, May 1st, 1904. A paid tax to city. A demanded of B on several occasions payment of water tax. B refused to pay. Does rent and water tax in said lease act as one, or separately? Can A commence action against B for payment of water tax and possession of store?

Answer.—A can collect water tax by suit from B, or can dispossess B if the water rates are made rent.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A made a contract with B to sell a piece of property, and the contract was to close on or before May 1st. May 1st being Sunday the party of the second part, "B," asked an extension of closing same till Monday, May 2d, which was granted. The water tax, as I understand, did not become a lien upon property until Monday, May 2, at 12 o'clock (May 1st being Sunday). Question—Who is required to pay the water tax, A or B?

Answer—A.

WATER SHORTAGE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I have been a property owner in 80th st, between Second and Third avs, for past twelve years, and have always had a very strong water pressure, with plenty of water on the top floor. For the past year we have been unable to get water on the top floor during the day. In the early morning and late evening there is a good pressure. Kindly advise me to whom I can complain, and if you think a complaint to the water department would remedy the trouble, as I do not care to put a tank on the roof.

Answer—Your grievance is a common grievance. You may make complaint to Department of Water Supply, 19 Park Row, but it will probably be useless, as the water supply is insufficient for amount allowed to be consumed.

LEVELING AND FILLING.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A party leased a plot of ground with a large hill upon it. He leveled off the top of this hill, removing about 2,000 loads of earth. He then filled in about 5,000 loads of earth alongside of the hill to bring a portion of the plot up to a uniform level. This leveling, grading and filling in was done without permission of the lessor; and also was above street grade. (a) Does this permit the "breaking" of the lease by the lessor? (b) Does this filling in above street grade make the lessee liable for damages? (c) The lessee having received nothing for the earth removed or the earth filled in, is the contractor liable for the damage to the property? (d) Can he be compelled to remove the earth dumped in? G. W. H.

(a) The lease cannot be declared at an end by the landlord. (b) The filling in above street grade makes the lessee liable for damages. (c) The contractor is not liable. (d) The contractor cannot be compelled to remove the earth, but the tenant could be compelled to remove it. See Wheelark v. Noonan, 108 N. Y., 179.

A FOXY LANDLORD,

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I am a real estate agent. I noticed a sign posted on a tenement house: "This property for sale, enquire of janitor." I went to see the janitor to give me some information about the property, and he told me the price of the house and how much mortgage on the property and the rental, and I asked her where the landlord was. She told me he is out to St. Louis for ten days. I asked for his name and address, but she said she did not know where he lived and only gave me his name. So I went away and got a purchaser for the property and showed him the house and the janitor told him all about it and showed him through the house. He told her he was ready to buy the house for the price the landlord told her, but she said she could not do anything until he came home. So I, the agent, and my party gave the janitor our cards to give to the owner as soon as he came home, but in the same time I went to the house every day to see if the landlord had come home, and the janitor always told me he had not come yet. The last time I was there the sign was taken away from the house and I asked the janitor if the property was sold and she told me the owner told her to take it down, because he bought the house next door on auction; now I see he only put up the sign to fool the people. Now, can I claim any commission from the janitor or landlord? J. B.

Answer.—No. The landlord did not employ you, or accept your work, or authorize the janitor to employ you on his behalf, and your employment by the janitor was contingent upon the landlord paying a commission, neither you nor the janitor ever supposed that the commission would be paid out of the janitor's pocket.

Presumably many Manhattan architects are away on vacations, as their office doors continue locked. Little is now doing in plans, but a revival is expected in September at least.

CONVEYANCES

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants and warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in whih he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no expressed covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street and avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same, only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property mentioned is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers, the instrument as filed is strictly followed.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Registers office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages, they mean hat it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage was drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same only one is recorded.

Subscribers will find mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found at the foot of this list.

July 15, 16, 18, 19, 20 and 21.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

THE statement of the "Iron Age" that the improvement of the steel situation has taken place chiefly in Wall Street, is confirmed by the quarterly report of the Steel Corporation, which shows that the orders on the books of that company amount to a million tons less than they did three months ago. It seems doubtful, consequently, whether that company can earn the full dividend on its preferred stock during the winter quarter of the current year, and it may be expected that after the dividend now declared is deducted from the market price of that stock, it will return to the lower level at which it sold during the spring. It certainly looks, however, as if the coming year would be a better one for the steel trade than the current year. The general consumption of steel manufacturing goods will certainly be larger; and it is probable that the railroads, while they will not be very hungry consumers, will require a bigger tonnage than they have taken during the current year; certainly, we shall have no great faith either in the revival in general business or in the permanence of higher prices on the stock market until the feeling in the steel trade becomes undeniably better and is founded upon a considerable increase of the business in sight.

IT will be good news to the inhabitants of the East Side that the Manhattan Railway Company is preparing to run seven-car trains on its East Side lines. That section of the city, both south of Fourteenth Street and north of Fifty-ninth Street, has of late increased more in population than any other of the chief divisions of Manhattan. Yet nothing is at present actually being done to improve its means of transit. The East Side subway is still five years or more in the future. The existing subway is intended only for the West Side of Manhattan. Consequently the elevated roads will continue to be the one rapid transit railroad which will serve the swarming population of that part of the city; and it is fortunate, indeed, that the electrical traction will permit the Manhattan Company to add still another car to the length of its trains during the rush hours. This addition will immediately increase by one-sixth the carrying capacity of these trains; and the additional car will further mean an increase almost one-half in that carrying capacity since the electrical motors were installed. Seven-car trains, welcome as they will be, will, however, only reduce the congestion for a year or so; and the next step should be the carrying out of Mr. Parson's suggestions respecting the four-tracking of the Second Avenue line. The East Side needs a much better express service than any which it now obtains, and it needs more track room. Both these advantages could be secured by the adding of two tracks to the Second Avenue line, and arrangements should be made with the Interborough Company to that end.

IT is a pity that some method cannot be found of organizing the planning of necessary public improvements for the Greater New York, so that there would be less delay in getting them underway. Wherever the Rapid Transit Commission, on the one hand, or the Board of Estimate, on the other, is chiefly responsible, there is more hesitation and deliberation than is natural, considering the importance of the decisions to be reached; but wherever the conflicting ideas of several different departments or commissions have to be reconciled, there seems to be no end to the delay which takes place before any definite action is taken. Such is the case, for instance, with the planning of an adequate system for distributing and collecting passengers who cross the present and prospective Brooklyn Bridges. Whether it is a question of widening the streets that approach these bridges, or planning connecting tunnels, year after year passes and nothing effective is done. For five years the condition of the traffic across the Brooklyn Bridge has been both a disgrace and a peril, yet in all that time not even one effective temporary relief has been provided, much less a permanent cure for the evil. The Williamsburgh Bridge was "opened" almost a year ago, but no definite decision has been taken either about the street approaches or the transit connections. The only means of traveling across the Bridge, which has been provided, is that of trolleys terminating at either end, which will merely repeat the terminal congestion of the Brooklyn Bridge. It is the same way with the Manhattan and Blackwell's Island Bridges. Yet it is perfectly plain that the one thing necessary is some method of distributing passengers to their destinations and collecting them, and that these ends can be best reached partly by special subway to important points and partly by a thorough system of connection with the new Manhattan subway systems. But there is no one man, or no body of men, who have the power or the gumption to decide upon the proper plan and push it through. Bad organization and division of responsibility are partly responsible for this failure. All such matters should be left to the Rapid Transit Commission, subject to the approval of the Board of Estimate. The duties of the Bridge Commissioner should be confined to the construction and supervision of the bridges, which is sufficient to keep the hands of any one man tolerably full.

The Jewish Population of New York.

FOR A long period the Irish immigration was the dominant influence in the political and popular social life of New York. As the Irish invasion began to slacken, the Germans came in large numbers until there were more people of German descent living around New York Bay than in any European city, except Berlin and Vienna. But the German immigration began also to diminish; and with its diminution the Germans, like the Irish, have become more and more absorbed into the American population of New York. No sooner, however, had the German ingredient began to decrease, than a great influx followed of Polish and Russian Jews; and if this immigration continues at its present rate for another fifteen or twenty years, these emigrants and their descendants will be numerically the most important single ingredient in the population of the city. There are said to be about 700,000 Jews now living in New York; and what with additional immigration and the natural increase due to their great fertility, this number might easily be more than doubled by 1925. Neither is there any reason to suppose that the rate of immigration will seriously diminish in the near future. The Jews are still persecuted in Russia, and they are comparatively prosperous in this country. New York is destined, in the course of time, to become more, rather than less, Jewish.

When the Russian Jews first began to immigrate in large numbers, it was frequently asserted that they would prove to be on the whole an undesirable addition to the population of the city. It was feared that their standard of living would prove to be low, and would deteriorate the standard of living of everybody who competed with them. It was also feared that their clannishness would make them impervious to the influences of American life, and that they would remain essentially and persistently alien. These fears have proved to be groundless. While their standard of living is not as high as that of some other immigrants, it is as high as is necessary, considering their sedentary occupations; and it has a tendency to be raised as soon as the Jew has been in this country for a few years. Furthermore, the Jew, although clannish, begins very soon to be in a certain way Americanized. He adapts himself early to the better opportunities of American life, and has a tendency to break away from a rigid conformity to his ancestral ceremonialism. He has not yet become much of a politician, but he has made his beginnings even in that field of work. There are good reasons for believing that the majority of them will become excellent American citizens.

Yet they will at the same time be American citizens after their own special manner. With all their adaptability, they retain strong racial and social characteristics, and offer in this respect a more stubborn resistance to the assimilative forces of American society than do the Irish or the Germans. Their religion tends, of course, to keep them together, as does the sense that they are still for the most part strangers in a strange land. They have, indeed, no fatherland to look back to or no nationalities to break; but they are bound together by stronger bonds than those of nationality. They are united by the sense of many centuries of persecution and oppression, and they hold fast to each other with all the tenacity of their race. Moreover, their habit of inter-marrying prevents them from being emerged into the American people as the Irish and the early German immigrants have been. The consequence is that freely as they expand under the more genial American influences, they constitute in many respects a society within a society. Their domestic customs are, many of them, carefully preserved in their new homes; and alone among the immigrants to this country, they have some sort of a literature of their own. They have organized their own theaters and they write their own plays. The acting in these theaters has many excellent qualities, and in the great quality of sincerity, is better than the acting at the Broadway theaters. Their plays are sincere also, and are frequently the genuine product of the new lives they are leading in this country. It is very much to be hoped that in these respects the Jews will retain their social individuality, for this individuality has in it much more promise than has the highest Americanism of some of the other immigrants.

It should be added that in certain respects the Jewish population is peculiarly interesting from the real estate point of view. They have had an important influence upon real estate values in New York along two different lines. In the first place they take naturally to real estate speculation; and by their constant exchange of equities in tenement house properties, they have placed the status and ownership of that class of property in a condition different from that which it has ever before obtained. It is the form of property in which the Jew invests as soon as he succeeds in accumulating a little capital, and these investments have generally turned out well, because from one cause or another, the prices of tenement house real estate have been very generally increasing. But the Jew is a speculator rather than an investor in real estate. He will sell out his equity for a comparatively small profit, and then start on another similar enterprise. Little by little a very considerable proportion of Manhattan tenement house property is passing into the hands of Jews, and the same is true of those portions of Williamsburgh, which have recently been receiving the overflow from Manhattan. Moreover, it is only right that the Jew should reap the advantage from the increase in value of Manhattan tenement house property, because he has done more than any other division of the population to make these increased values. He has been used to living in crowded quarters in the confined Ghettos of foreign cities, and in New York he takes naturally to tenement house life. His physical vitality and moderate habits of living enable him to keep his health under conditions that would be extremely deleterious to many other people, while his clannishness prevents him from becoming distributed evenly over the whole city. Wherever he goes, he goes in the company of his own people; and wherever he goes, he prefers tenements. These characteristics are likely to persist and will have a lasting effect upon the domestic habits of the population of New York City and upon the distribution of real estate value.

THE salient fact connected with the granting of the Westchester Railroad franchise by the Board of Aldermen, was the announcement by the financial backers of the plan that they proposed to compete in the bidding for the proposed new East Side subway. We do not pretend to know whether this announcement is or is not made in good faith; but so far as it goes, it testifies to the good sense of the attitude taken by the Record and Guide in relation to this whole business. We have held from the start that no Bronx franchise should be granted either to the Westchester or Portchester company unless it could give some guarantee of ability to carry its passengers to the City Hall without any transfer. A rapid transit railroad, with two express tracks, which carried its passengers at the rate of sixty miles an hour, only to deposit them on the banks of the Harlem River, would be an absurdity. The value of such a railroad depends entirely upon the adequacy of its connections south of the Harlem; yet no member of the Board of Aldermen or no other newspaper has even suggested that a guarantee of such a connection should be made a condition of the franchise. The Portchester Railroad was obviously intended to connect with the existing subway; and since the Westchester Railroad cannot have this advantage, it must necessarily obtain a connection of its own. It is very doubtful, however, whether, even if it, the company, is acting in good faith, it could secure the franchise for the East Side subway, and in case it did not secure it, its proposed plans for the Bronx would have no chance of being carried out. The mere chance, however, that this company may compete for the new Manhattan subway, complicates the rapid transit situation in the lower borough in an interesting manner, and should result to the advantage of the city.

One of the most interesting features of the new Hotel Astor is the power plant. It is intended to be one of the exhibits of the hotel, and visitors to it will be welcomed, as is the custom in some of the latest hotels of the first rank. It will probably surprise many who have not followed the development of mechanical plants in buildings of this nature to learn what a varied and extensive collection of machinery is lodged in the basement of one of these hotels. In fact, a visit to the power plant of the Hotel Astor is a sort of educational jaunt.

The Mayor's Reasons

FOR VETOING THE FIREPROOFING ORDINANCE—MEASURE WOULD NOT HAVE INCREASED PROTECTION.

The suspense in regard to the fireproofing ordinance was ended on Tuesday, when announcement was made that Mayor McClellan had vetoed it. The message in full is given herewith. It shows that the Mayor considered the faults in the ordinance as heretofore pointed out in these columns sufficient grounds for official disapproval. The question and motives did not govern; it was not of legal importance whether or not the ordinance would increase the cost or lessen the amount of building; but it was vital that the real effect of the legislation would be, not to increase the protection against fire, but to do the opposite.

The message is as follows:

To the Honorable the Board of Aldermen of the City of New York:

Gentlemen—I return herewith, without my approval, substitute ordinance passed June 28, 1904, entitled:

"An ordinance to amend section 105 of the Building Code, relative to fireproofing buildings."

The grounds upon which I base my failure to approve this ordinance are as follows:

First—So far as it affects windows which are over 150 feet above the ground, this ordinance instead of increasing the safety of the general public, actually has the effect of lessening such safety, for it enables the use of metal to be discontinued and fireproof wood (an admittedly inferior preventative of fire) to be substituted in place of the same.

Second—I am advised by a great many builders that the ability to furnish sufficient fireproofed wood is so slight that the building operations of the whole city could be very much embarrassed, if not absolutely held up, by the few fireproofing firms that have a monopoly of the patents.

Third—I am of the opinion that in a technical matter of this character I ought, as a question of expediency, to be influenced largely by the opinion of the city departments concerned, and the building departments of Manhattan and Brooklyn represent to me that this ordinance is inexpedient and unwise, and should not be approved.

Fourth—I am advised by the Board of Fire Underwriters that this ordinance does not, in their opinion, have the effect of increasing the safety from fire of buildings in this city, and also that, in their opinion, it should not be approved.

Yours very respectfully,

GEO. B. McCLELLAN, Mayor.

Making Things Clearer.

New York, July 23, 1904.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I want to express my appreciation of the new plan of tabulation of mortgage statistics. The former classification was too broad and general to enable a reader to determine with even reasonable approximation the general tendency and cost of money. Broader classification remedies this defect, and enables one to separate the palpable building loans from the permanent class of mortgages. The table published in to-day's paper is an illustration in point. Under the former classification the $4,000,000 increase in the amount of money loaned would appear to have been made to the extent of 75% at the higher rates of interest, creating thus the inference that the tendency in the cost of money was still higher than the market rates of a year ago. By the new form we observe, however, that over $3,000,000 of this increase was loaned at 6%, manifestly as building loans, and that the balance of the increase was loaned at less than 5%, the fair inference being that the current rates of interest for permanent loans was really lower than those of a year ago, while the rate of interest for building loans remains at the normal level, for many years, of 6%.

A. B. See Electric Elevator's Shop.

The A. B. See Electric Elevator Company will shortly remove to their new factory at Jersey City, which is nearing completion. Their factory in Brooklyn was acquired by the City in the interest of the new Manhattan bridge, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment having some time ago appropriated the sum of $170,000 for the purchase. The floor area of the new shop will be two and one-half acres.

Although the report of the Insurance Experiment Station, in Boston, on its recent tests of steel corrosion, under conditions approximating those of steel columns in modern buildings but confirms the results of previous tests of this character, the subject is of such importance that we give a brief digest of the facts. Of course, the value of such experiments depends upon the correctness of the assumption that a severe trial of a short duration gives us the data from which we can argue as to the results of a less severe test, extending over a far greater period. Each specimen of steel was cleaned and encased in Portland cement concrete of varying composition. After the concrete had set for 24 hours in air and seven days in water, the specimens were exposed to as severe tests as could be devised, and after various lengths of time the cement casings were broken and the steel specimens were cleaned, weighed and measured. The conclusion is reached that if structural steel is encased in a sound covering of good concrete it is proof against corrosion for a period of years which is so long as to make the subject of more interest to our great-grandchildren's children than to us. In other words, steel, properly covered with concrete, may be expected to last until changes in the laying out of the city or the substitution of yet more modern construction necessitates the removal of the building.

Material Market.

ON A MIDSUMMER BASIS.

Lumber, like most other building materials, has settled down to a midsummer basis. Owing to the great activity in the Bronx and Brooklyn building, the lessened construction in Manhattan has not been noticed in this trade; besides, the suburbs are more particularly the field of the lumber merchant than the business section of a city. Business buildings are constructed mostly of materials from mines and quarries, while the product of the forest is needed most in the dwelling sections. The building trades are less important to the lumberman than they were, for the consumption of lumber for building purposes has, strange as it may seem, decreased, while the annual amount required in the industries has been increasing.

Official price lists have not materially changed this season, the general policy being to stand pat until the fall at least. Notwithstanding what seem strong indications to others, it is asserted by the trade as a whole that combinations do not really control lumber prices. Great activity in all industrial lines created an unusual demand for and consumption of lumber. The increase in this class of buying more than offset the falling off of the demand from builders. For some months past there has been a falling off in the demand for lumber to be consumed by the industries; but this is being offset in large measure, though not fully, by an increase in the demand for construction lumber, an increase due almost entirely to compulsory building—the erection of tenements and other dwellings in our large cities, which must be undertaken in order to properly house an increasing population.

Hemlock is moving somewhat more freely toward buyers in the metropolitan market on a base price of $17 for New York city delivery. Some of the smaller operators who were quoting 25 to 50 cents under this price one or two months ago, have moved out most of their stock, and are now heard of very little in the market.

There is little or no change to report in the hardwoods. Poplar is still a trifle unsteady; but in view of the failure of the drives on many of the rivers, it is current belief that the market will steady back to about a $50 basis for New York delivery at an early date. In other respects the market is unchanged.

DEATH OF A BRICK MANUFACTURER.

Announcement has been made of the death of Elijah A. Walsh, by accident, at Newburgh, on Tuesday. As a director of the Empire Brick & Supply Company, the largest concern in the trade, he filled a place of importance in the brick industry. Mr. Walsh was a man of force and enterprise, thorough in his calling, and in all respects well thought of. The Walsh family is long settled at Newburgh, and his father was a brick manufacturer before him, and two brothers were his partners in the same business. Elijah, being unmarried, made his home with his mother in Grand st, Newburgh. He belonged to the City Club and the Orange Lake Ice Yacht Club, besides other social and fraternal connections there. Having decided to put an extinct brickyard at New Windsor, locally called the "old Walsh yard," in action again, he was superintending the placing of some new shafting. By the breaking of a plank he was precipitated nine feet to the floor, falling upon some masonry, and a heavy pulley falling with and upon him, his neck was broken. The Empire Brick & Supply Company, of which Mr. Walsh was a director and stockholder, has its main office at 874 Broadway, New York; yards at Leroy and West st, 12th av and 47th st, Manhattan; and Meserole and Morgan av, Brooklyn; with works at Stockport and Glasco, N. Y. On Thursday, the day of the funeral, the yards and works were closed. Mr. Walsh leaves two brothers—Jerome and Hiram—both interested in the Empire Brick & Supply Co.

NEW BRICK PLANT.

William T. Hilton, Ralph Hilton, George R. Mitchell, James S. Taylor and William Johnston McKay, all of Newburgh, who last week organized a company to manufacture sand-lime brick, have bought a part of the Verplanck property, on the river shore at Newburgh, and will erect a manufacturing plant there. The company is capitalized at $30,000.

LARGE ORDER FOR BOLTS.

The Pennsylvania Railroad, through the contractors for its tunnel under the Hudson River, has awarded a contract for 8,000 tons of bolts to be used in constructing its tunnel under that river. The Cambria Steel Company obtained the contract, although several other steel companies submitted bids. The price, it is understood is two cents a pound or $40 a ton, and the order will aggregate $320,000.

Because of the present lax condition of the steel market almost every steel concern in the country made a bid for the order. The price quoted by the successful bidder was about three-quarters of a cent less than the regular market price.

METAL CEILINGS.

The sheet-metal ceiling trade is bringing out some highly artistic results, which must prophesy a great extension of popularity in the immediate future. Some extremely pretty work has of late appeared around the city. A new idea is white metal rolled out into thin plates, size 18x24 inches, and enameled and embossed. It is made in a great variety of designs and colors, finished to represent the finest ceramic tiling. It is applied with a specially prepared cement directly to the finished plastered walls. In Dunlap's hat store in Fifth av, near 23d st, a combination of octagon, square and triangular panels in high relief pattern produces a rich effect that suggests to the observer that there is some scope for the display of artistic taste in metal ceilings. In contrast with the center is a simple border and cornice, making a rich general appearance.

At a palm garden in East 58th st the metal ceiling is massive and elegant, as the panels are fully 4 inches deep. With a ceiling 50 feet high and curved, there is appropriateness in the work. It is said to be possible to stamp sheet metal seven inches deep. At Raub & Martz's, corner of Houston and Mercer sts, there is an example of stucco and metal ceiling in combination. A central field of metal ceiling in deep relief has centerpieces of stucco, the mouldings and cornices being stucco also. The side-walls being covered with the metal likewise, the whole is blended harmoniously in color and design.

IRON TRADE.

Here and there are evidences of a little better feeling in the iron trade; nevertheless, it must be admitted that this is not shown in actual business done. Pig iron continues to be weak, notwithstanding a slight improvement in southern.

In finished material prices continue weak, and sales are mainly for short delivery and on a small scale. The bar market is rather demoralized. Smaller mills are readily shading prices on good orders for all classes of finished steel, and just now are getting most of the business. About the only manifestation looking towards improvement is that sellers have refused to make contracts on the basis of present prices for business running into 1905, although some producers are inclined to make offers for such trade.

Labor Complications.

CARPENTERS' LOCKOUT ENDED, BUT TROUBLE BREAKS OUT IN THE SUBWAY.

After a week's idleness, and the bar having been lifted, the journeymen in the employ of the Master Carpenters' Association resumed work on Monday morning, pending further arbitration. Once before the subject still in dispute was submitted to arbitration, though unsuccessfully; but it is believed that the spirit of conciliation has been strengthened by the effluxion of time and the manifested folly of quarreling over non-essentials. The truce was declared last Saturday, after a conference between the special emergency committee of the Building Trade Employers' Association and a sub-committee of the district executive committee of the journeymen, which second-named committee was appointed at a meeting of the representatives of the Manhattan District Council on Friday night last. Both having power to bind their respective organizations, it was agreed to try arbitration once more, though this was not decided until after some assurances had been given of the probability of satisfactory negotiations. The resolution adopted was as follows: "Resolved, That all restrictions having been removed from all work of all members of the Building Trades Employers' Association, including the job at 60th st and Fifth av, the lockout terminates, and all members of both organizations be notified at once to that effect."

With the approaching completion of the Subway come reports of trouble with the mechanics. The general contractor, Mr. McDonald, not being a member of the Building Trades Employers' Association, he is not protected by the Arbitration Plan and the powerful forces which buttress it, but depends upon an agreement with trades allied into the Central Federated Union. A demonstration of some kind from the newly organized Building Trades' Alliance was apprehended, and by order of this body some eleven hundred men quit work in the Subway, they being plasterers, electrical workers, plumbers, carpenters and metal lathers. The tile-layers refused to join the strike, and subsequently withdrew from the Alliance absolutely. Still at work are 650 painters, 240 bricklayers, 200 tile-layers and 100 other mechanics of various trades.

The strike was caused by the Amalgamated Painters demanding a share of work in the Subway. All the painters employed there now belong to a rival organization, the Brotherhood. The Brotherhood painters are affiliated with the Central Federated Union. The sub-contractors take the ground now that, as the Central Federated Union has shown that it cannot control its own men, the contractors are freed from any agreement to employ none but men affiliated with that body. One sub-contractor, J. O. Whitnack, who has the contract for the fireproof doors in the stations, has entered a complaint against his Brotherhood carpenters who have struck, which was a subject of a meeting of the arbitration board on Friday night.

A moral victory for arbitration was achieved recently when the committee appointed to settle the differences between the painters, decorators and varnishers and their employers, made its report. The decision of the committee, which consisted of two men from each side and a fifth member selected by both advanced the painters' daily wages from $3.50 to $4, and the decorators from $4 to $4.25. The varnishers received no advance.

Work on the Pennsylvania Railroad tunnel under Manhattan Island and on the New York Central terminal improvement, was not delayed to any extent by the small strike declared against the O'Rourke Engineering Construction Company. New men were at once hired to take the places of the few striking rock drillers, engineers and tool sharpeners.

Trouble over an unpopular foreman at R. E. Reid & Co.'s yard in Astoria, which caused a small strike and threatened a larger one, has been referred to arbitration.

Gossip of the Week.

This week's trading at private contract, as far as quantity is concerned, was a little better than last, there being seventy-one transactions reported for Manhattan, as compared with fifty-four for last week. Of the total, thirty-eight were flats or tenements, eighteen dwellings, of the lower-priced kind, which is an increase over the past few weeks. In the Bronx there were twenty-nine sales, as against twenty-one for last week. The business being done, however, is entirely by the speculator, as it always is at this time of the year. In the auction room there were thirteen parcels offered, three of them being voluntary offerings; of the latter, two were sold and one bid in. Of the legal offerings, six were bought by the plaintiffs.

Bryan L. Kennelly will sell on Saturday, August 6, at 2 P. M., on the premises, by order of the executors of David M. Hildreth, the West End Hotel and cottages located on Ocean and Brighton avenues, West End (Long Branch), N. J. There is also a business block leased to various tenants. The property will be sold in three parcels and possession will be given September 15, 1904.

BROOKLYN.

Geo. E Lovett & Co. have sold the following properties: No. 271 Stuyvesant av, corner Jefferson av, 3-sty and basement stone dwelling, 36x65.2x95, for Gilbert S. King, to Dr. Vincent L. Zimmermann; 48 Garden pl, a 4-sty and dining-room extension, brownstone dwelling, 20x60x100, for Donald Lee, to Isabella C. Riglin; and 336 Smith st, between 1st pl and Carroll st, a 3-sty store and flat building, 18x45x73, for Edward A. Crowe to Fanny Rice.

William A. Engeman, president of the Brighton Beach Racing Association, announced that the land purchased by him between the Sheepshead Bay race track and the eastern end of Coney Island would not be used for racing purposes, but that it was intended for building purposes. He added: "We have not planned to build right away. One reason that we purchased this land is that we need it in connection with our other holdings there, and another reason is that it is a good investment. We are going to fill it in and make it suitable for residences."

Cory & Sands have sold the 3-sty frame residence 3108 Avenue F for Elizabeth M. Eckhoff to Philander F. Barton.

The well-known Lockwood homestead, near New Rochelle, consisting of about five acres of land on the shore of the Sound, and adjoining the residence and grounds of William E. Iselin, on Davenport Neck, was this week sold to Robert C. Fisher. The property has a frontage of 251 feet on the Sound and a commanding view of the waters. The price paid was in the neighborhood of $35,000. It is the intention of Mr. Fisher to remodel the twenty-room house and make it his permanent residence.

D. Colucci & Co. have leased for Katchem Elm, for 5 years, at $3,000 per year, the southeast corner of 102d st, on 2d av, a 5-sty tenement, on lot 25x100; for E. Kempner, for 3 years, at $3,700 per year 2201 2d av, 5-sty building, 25x100.

Workers in Rare Woods.

The Union Equipment & Bronze Co., of 514 and 520 West 36th st, have been appointed sole agents in New York and vicinity by the cabinet-making house of Metz & Meyer, of Buffalo, New York, who are workers in rare woods, such as burly-oak, English bog oak, Circassian walnut, prima-vera and crotch mahogany. A carefully selected stock of flitch-sawed quartered white oak is always kept on hand, and they generally calculate to keep at least 2,000,000 feet of the best foreign cabinet woods, thoroughly seasoned and ready for use, which they import "in the log," and are in a position to turn into the finest kind of cabinet-work, either from architects' designs, or they will submit designs for special furniture to suit surroundings. A combination of this kind with a firm of metal workers is particularly happy.

The Union Equipment & Bronze Co., speaking of a panel in the east door of the baptistry of S. Giovanni, made by Lorenzo Ghiberti, and pronounced by Michael Angelo, "So beautiful that they might be the gates of Paradise," say: "If the Governor of Florence had been as conservative as some men of the present day the competition on these bronze doors would have been restricted to three or four 'old-established' concerns, and young Lorenzo Ghiberti would not have had his opportunity. We do not claim for ourselves the genius of Ghiberti, but we do try our level best to execute work a little better than necessary, and offer no apologies when it is done." It is a bold statement, but when one knows T. J. Norton, the president of the company, he knows it comes very close to being correct.

Building Operations.

Plans for Yorkville Bank.

Robert Maynicke, 725 Broadway, is preparing plans for the new building to be erected by the Yorkville Bank at the northeast corner of 3d av and 85th st, on plot 50x100. The structure, which will be of fireproof construction, will be either four or five stories in height, with banking rooms on the ground floor.

Police Headquarters Bids Rejected.

All bids for the new police headquarters building for the police, which is to be erected on Centre st, between Broome and Grand sts, which were opened by the Police Commissioners July 20, have been rejected. As the lowest bid exceeded the appropriation of $750,000 (see Record and Guide of July 23), estimates will be readvertised for shortly.

Barney & Chapman Plan a Virginia Library.

Plans prepared by Barney & Chapman, architects, of 520 5th av, New York, for the new Handley Library, have been adopted by the Handley Trustees, of Winchester, Va., and their choice approved by the City Council of Winchester. This is to be a magnificent building and is to cost $100,000, exclusive of the equipments, which will be between $25,000 and $50,000 more. It will practically be 1-sty in height, of stone, and surmounted by a dome 85 feet high.

Henry Siegel's Boston Building.

L. A. Goldstone, architect, 110 West 34th st, New York, is preparing plans for a 4-sty brick, semi-fireproof storage warehouse, 80x112 ft, to be built at Albany and East Dedham sts, Boston, Mass., for the new Henry Siegel Co., lessees. It is estimated to cost $100,000. Samuel Green, of 37 Maiden lane, New York, is the owner and builder. The new building will be similar in design and construction to that recently completed at 335-41 West 16th st from plans by Mr. Goldstone for the "14th Street Store."

A Sixteenth Street Improvement.

16TH ST.—Plans are ready in the office of Horenburger & Straub, 122 Bowery, for extensive alterations to the 4-sty library building Nos. 16 and 18 East 16th st, for the Columbia College of the City of New York, of which J. B. Pine, 62 Wall st, is a trustee. The building will be altered into stores and lofts, with a 6-sty rear extension, 38x126 feet, two stories will be added to the main structure, and new walls, floor beams, stairs, partitions and iron columns will be installed. The estimated cost of the work is placed at $50,000. No contracts have been let. Simon Ragovin & Co., 45 and 51 West 21st st, are the lessees.

Another Emergency Hospital Proposed.

Police Commissioner McAdoo is considering a plan for an emergency hospital to be erected somewhere in the vicinity of the Manhattan end of the Brooklyn Bridge. The nearest hospital to this point is the Hudson Street Hospital, and this, the Commissioner states, is unable to cope with the large number of accidents that take place on or in the vicinity of the Bridge. Dr. S. G. Cook, who is attached to the Police Department's surgical division, has suggested the establishment of the proposed building somewhere in the neighborhood of the Oak st. station. If such an institution is erected, it will be under the direct supervision of the Police Department. No building plans have as yet been considered or architects selected.

Railroad Work.

The New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad will build a new line through the Bronx borough, so far as to eliminate all grade crossings. Beginning at the Harlem River and 132d st and Cypress av, tracks will be elevated and go over the roadways, and about 141st st will go underneath the highways. Apparently the company is to go ahead and begin work as soon as it can advertise and let contracts. Between the Harlem River and 141st st are ten streets where the tracks will be elevated, and from there on, west and east of the Bronx River, on about a dozen important thoroughfares, grade crossings will be eliminated. The general offices of the company are at New Haven, whence important masonry and structural iron contracts will be given out.

For Church Purposes.

80TH ST.—John J. Downey, 410 and 412 West Thirty-fourth st, has obtained the general contract to build a 4-sty and basement, brick and stone, tile and slate roof, parish house, 50x77 feet, for the Corporation of All Angels' Church, of 240 West 80th st, at Nos. 251 and 253 West 80th st, same to cost $90,000. H. J. Hardenbergh, of 1 West 34th st, is the architect. Rev. S. De Lancey Townsend is rector. It is to be 50 feet front and 77 feet deep, with a facade of brick, with trimmings of limestone. Estimated cost, $80,000.

(For plans filed, see pages 257 and 277.)

The 5-sty apartment house at 216 West 83d st will be altered into a rectory for the Rev. M. J. Considine, rector of Holy Trinity Roman Catholic Church, in West 82d st. A 2-sty extension is to be added and a new ornamental front erected. The cost of the necessary improvements is estimated at $12,000 by Joseph H. McGuire, the architect, of 3 West 29th st.

De Lamar House to be Completed.

37TH ST.—Charles P. H. Gilbert, 1123 Broadway, has awarded the contract for the cabinet work, etc., and interior finish of the De Lamar House, 37th st and Madison av, to Messrs. Herter Brothers, 369 5th av. The contracts for the ornamental interior marble and mosaic work, etc., and the interior ornamental iron and bronze work have been awarded, as have all other contracts, and all work is well under way and being hastened to completion. There has been a report in several daily papers to the effect that the house was not to be completed and that it would be sold. Mr. Gilbert states, however, that Mr. De Lamar has no intention of selling this house, and expects to have it completed about the first of December, when he will occupy it. This house is most elaborately equipped with machinery and all sorts of improved apparatus and appliances, and it is believed it will be the most thoroughly up-to-date high-class residence in New York when finished.

Lackawanna Improvements.

Plans for a new terminal at Jersey City for the Lackawanna Railroad are advancing. Modern terminal buildings of brick and stone will take the place of the present frame structures, two ample ferry slips will be added on the Jersey City side, and new double-deck ferryboats will land the passengers on a wide concourse similar to the Pennsylvania ferry in Jersey City. South of the present Pier 5 will be built a modern pier, with iron superstructure 88 feet wide and 1,340 feet long, and on Pier 9 is now being erected a coal-dumping machine which will lift a car and empty it. Work has already been started on a freight house extension fronting on Ferry st, which will be 415 feet long and several stories high, and also on the construction of six modern transfer bridges to be used in handling freight, and replace those destroyed by the late fire. As the improvements progress there may be many changes, which suggest themselves to the chief engineer. General offices are at 26 Exchange pl, New York.

Westchester's New Institution.

John E. Kerby, architect, 452 Fifth av. New York, has completed plans for St. Joseph's Normal College, to be erected at Pocantico Hills, Westchester County. The structure is to be the novitiate and mother house of the Christian Brothers for this district, their present novitiate having been acquired by the city, as it is part of the water shed at Amawalk. The new building will be situated on the highest point of Westchester overlooking the Sound, Long Island, and the Jersey hills beyond the Hudson. It is to be of semi-fireproof construction, with exteriors of stone, brick and terra cotta. It will be four stories and basement high, with a frontage of 355 ft., and a rear central wing will run back 300 ft. The building will contain class rooms, dormitories, gymnasium, refrectories and living apartments, besides all modern conveniences and appointments. It will be heated by steam, and will be provided with combination gas and electric fixtures. It is expected to have the building completed by next spring. The cost is estimated at $250,000. Figures on its construction have been submitted and on Tuesday the general contract will be awarded. Brother Joseph is the head of the Order, and Brother Christian, the treasurer, has charge of the work. Their city house is at No. 50 2d st.

That Dangerous Word "Fireproof"!

"This Absolutely Fireproof Building."

This Sign or some other of like meaning still figures frequently on our Buildings—our Hotels, Office-buildings, Apartment-houses, Residences.

Who believes in the Security so positively offered?

The Architect? The Builder? The Owner? The Inhabitant? The Real Estate Agent? The Insurance Co.?

Not one of them,—Now!

Experience has destroyed Faith. The Ashes and charred Skeletons of too many "Fireproof" Buildings furnish destructive Testimony which Common-sense refuses to ignore.

As a Result, Common-sense has a tendency now-a-days to substitute the words "Fire-Retarding" or "Slow-Burning" for the older term "Fireproofed."

Verbally, no doubt, this is an improvement—tends to remove False Security, places a Proper Criticism upon Existing Building Methods, opens the Door and invites the Discovery or Invention of the "Real Thing."

A System of Real Fireproofing is imperatively needed.

The History of every Conflagration furnishes the Proof that here we touch the "Weak-Spot" of the Modern Building.

The Problem is too plain, the Demand too urgent not to have received some Attention and Attack from Inventors and Manufacturers.

Complete Success off-hand was not to be expected—the Solution was too difficult to attain in a Single Step. Progression through failures and partial Successes was the most that could be expected, until, as with the Telegraph, the Telephone, the Electric Light, Experience and Experiment culminated in

A System of Real Fireproofing!

Alterations.

24TH ST.—Robert Maynicke, 298 5th av, has completed plans for extensive alterations to the Madison Square Theater, at 2-6 West 24th st, owned by W. C. & H. E. Eno. The improvements are designed to give better fire protection to the building, and include the construction of additional exits, the installation of a complete automatic sprinkler system, with fire standpipes; the erection of automatic fireproof doors, the fireproofing of all dressing rooms and rigging lofts and the removal of all combustible draperies and other similar decorations. All the doors are to be made to open outwardly, and the asbestos stage curtain is to be improved. The cost is estimated at $20,000.

By the Commissioner of Water Supply, Gas and Electricity, room 1536, No. 21 Park row, Wednesday, August 3, for furnishing and installing the steam engines, generators and electric wiring at the Jamaica and Springfield pumping stations and electric wiring at the Ridgewood pumping station and Mount Prospect reservoir and tower, including lamps, fixtures, switchboards and other appurtenances complete.

CONVEYANCES

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants and warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no expressed covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street or avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Registers office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M.," occur, preceded by the name of a street, in these lists of mortgages they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

The first date is the date the mortgage was drawn, the second the date of filing; when both dates are the same only one is recorded.

Subscribers will find mortgages in this list with the wrong block number attached. The block number we give is taken from the instrument as filed.

Mortgages against Bronx property will be found at the foot of this list.

July 22, 23, 25, 26, 27 and 28.

MORTGAGES.

NOTE.—The arrangement of this list is as follows: The first name is that of the mortgagor, the next that of the mortgagee. The description of the property then follows, then the date of the mortgage, the time for which it was given, and the amount. The general dates used as head lines are the dates when the mortgage was handed into the Register's office to be recorded.

Whenever the letters "P. M." occur, preceded by the name of a street in these lists of mortgages, they mean that it is a Purchase Money Mortgage, and for fuller particulars see the list of transfers under the corresponding date.

IT would be curious, in case a manifest business revival should appear during the coming fall and winter, yet such may be the event. Usually a wave of depression lasts about as long as a wave of prosperity; and since the prosperous period had a duration of three or four years, the reverse movement might have been expected to cover as long a time. It is, however, not only possible but probable that during the coming year, a distinct revival of activity will take place. The underlying soundness of the situation has always encouraged business men to hope that the recovery would not be long delayed, and now there are signs that such will be the case.. Railroad earnings are steadier, business failures are fewer, collections are better, and a more confident tone is beginning to prevail. If the crops turn out as well as may be reasonably anticipated, these signs of better things will be both increased in number and in meaning. The great thing is that a bitter balance is again being established between the country's supply of fixed and floating capital. The pressing necessity for a great many costly improvements in 1901 locked up too large a share of the quick assets of American business; and the consequence was that stock and other speculations depending on free supplies of such capital had to be curtailed. Many important improvements were either abandoned or temporarily suspended, and it may be expected that, if things go well, work on them will be resumed or commenced—which will lead to a needed revival in the iron and steel trades. The local situation is in this respect particularly good, and provided there are no really dangerous disagreements between the Employers' Association and the unions, it may be expected that many important building projects which have been held in abeyance for a year or more will again be seriously taken up.

A LIFELESS real estate market in Manhattan and an increasing volume of activity in the Bronx correctly describes current conditions. The dullness in Manhattan does not differ essentially from the dullness which usually prevails during the mid-summer months; but it is more than usually noticeable, because of the large volume of business which was transacted during the spring. The tenement house speculation is over, at least for the time being. A certain demand for dwellings may be remarked; but it is nothing to brag about. Very few vacant lots are being sold except in the Bronx; and very few old buildings. In Harlem, East Side operators are beginning more and more to buy up the little three-story dwellings that abound thereabouts, and to replace them by six-story tenements. In the course of time the old dwellings will disappear on the upper East Side as they have on the lower East Side. Renting is good. In spite of the emigration to the outlying boroughs and the suburbs, there are not many vacancies in Manhattan; and in as much as general conditions show a tendency to improve, a good season might be expected for 1904-5, were it not for the labor situation. Opinions will vary as to the seriousness of the actual situation, but there can be no question as to the seriousness of the effect of the lockout on building. It will prevent the starting of any new jobs for the next few months, except those which stand in an exceptional position; and unless it is quickly settled its discouraging results will not be restricted to the year 1904. There is no reason, however, as yet to suppose that it will not be quickly settled, and in a manner satisfactory to the employers, because the unions have nothing really to fight about. They have accepted the arbitration agreement and have been well treated under it. They have every reason to be satisfied with it; and the little strikes, which have occasioned the present lockout, none of them raise questions of any great importance. These strikes mean only that a certain element in the unions are making a tentative attempt to restore the former anarchy in the building trades; and such being the case it was obvious that effective measures must be taken to maintain the conditions of the agreement. An impression seems to have been created that the lockout is tantamount to a declaration that the agreement had failed; but such is far from being the case. No one with any knowledge of the situation expected that the agreement would be immediately and carefully observed. It was forced on the unions by the strong arm of the employers' association; and it will have to be maintained by the same power, until the unions come to appreciate its value. With the arbitration agreement as the basis of the action, the employer's association has a righteous policy for which to exert its power; and such a combination of a good cause with a strong arm cannot fail.

THE issue of the City Record which contained the salary list, also contained the first part of the list of real estate valuations. This publication is extremely valuable. It shows not only the assessed value of the ground and the buildings separately, but it shows also the size of the property and the name of the owner. It will be of the utmost use to real estate owners, operators and brokers. The only trouble is that the publication is made so late that it will not be as valuable as it should be. The first issue contained only the valuations for Section I out of the thirteen sections in Manhattan and the Bronx, twelve in Brooklyn, and five each in Richmond and Queens. The publications of the whole list cannot be completed before the first of the new year, if indeed, it is completed by that date. In the meantime the deputy assessors are about to begin their annual revision of the list, which will be completed by the time the publication of the old list is finished. The consequence is that the publication will always be about a year behind the current figures, in which property owners and brokers are most vitally interested. It is true that the figures opened for inspection during the first week in January are only tentative valuations, which must be subsequently confirmed. Nevertheless, they are the figures the publication of which would be most useful; and if they could be inserted in the City Record some time between January 1st and July 1st, it would be both an enormous convenience to real estate interests, and a more effective check upon the equality and accuracy of the assessment.

THE publication of the names of the city employees in the City Record together with their salaries reveals the fact that during the first six months of the new administration the gross salary account of the city was raised about $100,000. This is not a large increase; and probably any private corporation with an expanding business and as large disbursements on the same account would show a greater increase. Still, it must be repeated that this extremely important aspect of the city government is about as far as possible from being placed on a suitable and satisfactory basis. The trouble is not that the city employees are increased in salary, but that the increases are not provided for according to a systematic and impartial method. They go more by favor than for the general good of the service. The employees of the city, like those of a private corporation, should have the assurance of reward for long, competent and faithful service, and in order to secure that result, the whole list should be graded and the employee should be advanced from one grade to another in proportion as his services become for any sufficient reason of more value to the city. No such result is obtained by the system now in vogue, which is the outcome, on the one hand of an attempt to protect city employees against arbitrary removal, and on the other of the instinctive dislike which heads of departments feel towards this independent civil service. The employee is protected, but he is not stimulated to do his best work. He knows that unless he is absolutely incompetent and dishonest, he cannot be discharged; but he knows also that no matter how well he works his excellent service will not of itself increase his salary and advance his position. The consequence is that he has every inducement to perform his work in a certain routine way and the entire service, except in exceptional offices, is lacking in the esprit de corps, without which a public office cannot be well managed. The heads of departments on their part naturally prefer to favor their personal staff, in whom they have confidence and who will be grateful for such little attentions. The whole system makes for inefficiency, and one of the most necessary tasks in the complex and difficult work of municipal reform is to devise a plan, whereby the permanent municipal employees will be encouraged to do good and faithful work rather than the reverse.

New York in 1784.

IT is always interesting and suggestive to remark how continuous the forces are which give substance and form to the life of a great and typical city like New York. New York has always been cosmopolitan; it has always been the chief port of entry for European customs and aesthetic materials; it has always been gay; it has always combined a certain monotony of architectural design with a certain variety of architectural outline; and its economy and appearance have always been very much modified by its insular situation. All, or mostly all, of these characteristics appear in Mrs. Trollop's description of the city, written in 1830, and in James Fenimore Cooper's of a few years later. It is still more amusing, however, to find traces of the same characteristics in an account of New York written during the Revolution, and published in France in 1784. This account, it should be premised, appeared in the French edition of a book published a little earlier in England, and entitled "The Letters of an American Farmer." Its author, Hector St. John de Crèvecoeur, was a Frenchman who had emigrated to the colonies some thirty years before, and who published upon his return to Europe, during the Revolution, an account of the agricultural, natural, and social conditions in certain of the colonies. This book, which is of altogether unusual interest, has been made accessible by means of a reprint recently published by Fox, Duffield & Co.

"The City of New York," he says, "is handsome, although irregular. This irregularity proceeds from the nature of the soil; from the steepness of the peninsula on which the first houses were built as well as from the necessity of continually forming artificial ground to increase the extent of the city and procure for its trade the needful warehouses and quays." While a contemporary description of New York would hardly employ precisely these terms, yet considering the changes that have taken place in one hundred and twenty years, the main lines of the account coincides extraordinarily well with its present characteristics. New York is still handsome; it is still irregular, and it is still necessary continually to make artificial space in order to accommodate the business of the city.

"Certain streets," Crevècoeur goes on to say, "have sidewalks on both sides paved with slabs of rock and adorned with plane trees whose shade in summer is equally pleasant to the passers-by and to the houses. Here one finds a union of Dutch neatness with English taste and architecture. The houses are finished, placed and painted with the greatest care. The merchants are intelligent, able and rich, and the citizens are very skillful, especially the carpenters, the cabinet-makers and the joiners. Stone being rare, nearly the whole city is built of bricks. Let those who, like myself, have experienced the extreme hospitality of the New Yorkers, praise it as it deserves. New York being the constant meeting place of the English packet boats, this city is necessarily the first that European strangers enter. The reception is enough to give them a high idea of American generosity, as well as of the simple and cordial friendliness which they are to expect in the other cities of this continent." In many details, of course, the New York of to-day would not possess the foregoing characteristics; but one is impressed rather by the extent to which the description remains true. The plane-trees are vanishing, although most of us remember them; and we have stone enough and to spare; but our merchants are still able, intelligent, and rich, our citizens as good as any in the country, the packet boats still dock in the port of New York, and we still try to give foreigners a favorable idea of American hospitality.

The rest of M. de Crevècoeur's account is similarly pertinent. "The streets," he says, "are frequently cleaned, and are lighted during the dark nights. The city contains 3,400 houses, 28,000 inhabitants, and twenty churches belonging to different sects. It is a pleasure also to see a college beautifully built. It is furnished with an excellent library and with a great number of costly mathematical instruments. One regrets only that this new acadamy has not been erected far from the city, in some rural retreat, where the scholars had been far removed from the tumults of business and the dissipations and pleasures that are so numerous in large cities." * * * "But nothing is more beautiful and nothing gives the reflective spectator a higher idea of the city's wealth or of the nature of its free and happy commerce than the multitude of ships of all sizes which continually tack about the bay, either to sail free of the harbor or to reach the city." The application of this description of Columbia to the existing university is almost laughable; and it is assuredly true that our streets are still frequently cleaned and are lighted at a very considerable expense on dark nights.

TO all appearances the Consolidated Gas Co., in spite of the veto of its enabling act by the Governor, proposes to go ahead under the powers the East River Gas Co. now possesses, and build its tunnel under the East River. It is very much to be hoped that such is the case. The plants of the company wherever they exist act as a blight upon the real estate in their vicinity; and their removal will not only increase very considerably the habitable space in Manhattan, but will help to improve a number of desirable neighborhoods near the water front. It is a tremendous job which the Consolidated Company is undertaking, but it is just one of those works which enormously increase the efficiency and the economy of what amounts to a great public service. The company will be able by the concentration of its plants in Astoria to organize its manufacturing department in a more economical basis than is now possible, while at the same time localizing a nuisance which at present pervades the city. One cannot help wondering whether the tendency to remove large manufacturing plants from Manhattan to the outlying boroughs will not be a growing one. The constant increase in the value of real estate on the island and the difficulties and expense of shipping goods from the island to the mainland will encourage manufacturers to remove plants that occupy very much space to cheaper locations; and when the plans of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company are completed the boroughs of Queens and Brooklyn will offer great advantages for such purposes. These boroughs will obtain connection with New England without breaking bulk, and the connection with the West and South via. the Pennsylvania will be better organized than it is at present. The two Long Island boroughs are undoubtedly destined to become great manufacturing centers, and part of this business they will gain at the expense of Manhattan. Of course Manhattan will still remain the location of great manufacturing industries, particularly those connected with the clothing trade; but on the whole its business will be transacted comparatively more in offices and warehouses and comparatively less in factories.

A More Beautiful Bronx.

MODERN IDEAS IN STREET PLANS MAY YET BE CARRIED OUT.—CITY COMMISSION AT WORK.

When, in 1807, a commission consisting og Gouverneur Morris, Simeon DeWitt and John Rutherford devised the present street plan of Manhattan Island from Houston to 155th st, they wrote apologetically: "It may be a subject of merriment that the Commissioners have provided space for a greater population than is collected at any spot on this side of China." And then they ventured this prediction: "It is improbable that for centuries to come the ground north of the Harlem flats will be covered by houses." Little did its chairman dream that his fine old estate, stretching fanlike from Harlem Bridge to Fordham and West Farms, would become a city in itself; yet in less than one century the northward march of development has swept past the Harlem flats and across the Harlem River until to-day tenements and factories have invaded the old Manor of Morrisania, and the undreamt-of city beyond the Harlem is teeming with a population four times that of the city of New York at the time he planned for its future.

The commission of 1807 has a successor in the New York City Improvement Commission of 1904, which is appointed to consider the whole subject of city beautification, and to recast and re-feature the map of its streets, squares and parks in the name of Modern Ideas. The committee is going from borough to borough to take counsel of the wise men and representative bodies in each section. Last week, on Wednesday morning, the commissioners, headed by Chairman Francis K. Pendleton, gave a hearing in the Bronx, at the Borough Hall at Third and Tremont avs. The first and principal speaker was Albert E. Davis, the architect, who, being president of the North Side Board of Trade, was singularly qualified to speak for that body. He was followed by Adolph C. Hottenroth, of the Taxpayers' Alliance; Jas. L. Wells, of the North Side Board of Trade; Congressman Jas. A. Goulden; Charles C. McCrea, of the East Tremont Taxpayers' Association, and others.

Expression was given to some extremely interesting opinions. It was pointed out that in the undeveloped portions of New York City opportunity is afforded to profit by the experience of older communities and avoid their mistakes. Especially is this so in the territory east of the Bronx River, the District of Chester, which comprises about 14,500 acres, and is, therefore, larger than the whole of Manhattan Island. Of this great area it was said that it is as broad as long, in contrast to elongated Manhattan. This breadth, it was said, suggests the need of diagonal streets or short cuts to bring its different parts into convenient access to each other as well as to the city below it. Naturally, the trend of travel will always preponderate to and from Manhattan. The best indication of this is the course followed by the old roads, the sole purpose of which was convenience of travel to and from New York. Thus we have the old Boston Post road, the Fordham and Pelham road, the West Farms road and Westchester Turnpike, giving unmistakable evidence of the natural course or direction of travel. Logically, the nearer that these can be paralleled in the intervening streets, for manifestly they are themselves too irregular for city streets, the greater convenience to the greater number of people will result. This was apparently recognized in the section known as Unionport; and the street system in this small section has been retained in its original form in the adopted maps. Clearly the first essential of a street system is convenience of intercommunication. Yet, strange as it may seem, throughout the major portion of the district, the streets, as laid out, would divert the bulk of travel in a direction at right angles to its natural course, two streets being run that way to every one toward Manhattan, in an apparent attempt to imitate what everyone now recognizes as the vital mistake in the street system of Manhattan.

EMBELLISHMENT OF PLAN NEEDED.

Mr. Davis asked the Commission to examine carefully the map or plan that was prepared by former Chief Topographical Engineer Louis A. Risse and approved by the Board of Public Improvements, and had the endorsement of the North Side Board of Trade, and then compare it with the the submitted plan. He called attention to the splendid opportunities for locating public recreation and picnic grounds, by acquiring strips of land along the banks of the Bronx River from Williamsbridge to the City line, and of Westchester Creek and Hutchinson River, similar to the public reservations upon the banks of the Charles River, as laid out by the Metropolitan Park Commission of Boston. Mr. Davis referred especially to the upper part of the Bronx River, where provision for this was made in the Risse plan. The Chicago, Buffalo and St. Louis Fairs having demonstrated the artistic value and effect of grand basins, lagoons or waterways surrounded by public buildings, why not, he asked, preserve some of these admirable ideas in permanent form?

Mr. Davis accordingly submitted a suggestive plan or map for that part of the Borough of the Bronx lying east of the Bronx River and south of Pelham Bay Park, of which the southerly boundary is the East River and the easterly Long Island Sound. In this plan a civic centre is proposed at the junction of Tremont av, extended to the Sound, the Eastern Boulevard and Westchester Creek, the waters of the creek being diverted into lagoons and waterways, upon which and upon the broad intersecting streets the public buildings would front, graceful bridges and statuary adding to the general effect. This would be convenient and accessible from all portions of the new territory and the lower section of the Bronx as well, as from Borough Hall at Tremont and Third avs. At the intersection of the diagonal streets, circles are contemplated, embellished with trees, flower-beds, fountains and statuary. A Sound Shore Drive is provided similar to the Risse plan, as also the Eastern Boulevard; in fact, this plan is modeled after the Risse plan with the exception of the turning of the streets in the direction of the bulk of travel.

SHORE DRIVES.

Mr. Davis further said: "We would especially urge upon your Commission the wisdom of taking advantage of the splendid opportunity for drives or boulevards which will enable the community at large to enjoy the natural beauties of the Hudson and Sound shores of our borough, which are now controlled by private estates. As before stated, a beautiful shore drive, affording wide-spreading marine views of the Sound from Ft. Schuyler to Pelham Bay Park, received the approval of our Board, and was officially adopted by the Board of Public Improvements and of prominent citizens of this borough a few years ago. Its elimination from the map is ascribed to the objection of the private estates through which it would pass; but the owners of these will pass away, and their children may not care to maintain them. Already some of them are offered for sale. Similarly, the owners of large estates protested against Riverside Drive and the new parks we now so highly prize. Private interest must ever yield to public interest, and the City must plan for the future. We ask you to recommend that this Shore Drive be restored to the map.

"We also ask that public parks, not small paved spaces, be laid out on Hunt's Point, Classon's Point and Old Ferry Point, so that the general public may have access to these beautiful points of vantage, and because there will be need, in this great section, of more park area. Along the Hudson in our borough we urge the construction of the proposed Hendrick Hudson memorial bridge, and the extension of Riverside Drive to the Yonkers line. It is the logical sequence of the extension now being made from the Manhattanville Valley to the Boulevard LaFayette, which carries the drive to Dyckman st or Tubby Hook.

SOUND TO HUDSON BOULEVARD.

"Another suggestion is the adoption of Chancellor MacCracken's plan for a Sound to Hudson boulevard along the northerly border of the city. The greater portion of this the city already owns in Pelham Bay and Van Cortlandt Parks, which now largely abut against private property. Consider Central Park backing against yards of private property! A broad boulevard here would form an ideal crosstown thoroughfare connecting the extreme easterly and westerly sections of the borough. And its value could still further be increased when Yonkers, Mt. Vernon and New Rochelle become a part of New York City, as they should and assuredly will in time.

SEDGWICK PARKWAY.

"A further suggestion is the widening to 100 feet and conversion of Sedgwick av from McCombs Dam Bridge to Van Cortlandt Park into a parkway, tree-lined, with grass plots in the center. This avenue, the most picturesque thoroughfare in our borough, follows quite closely and but a short distance away the east bank of the Harlem by graceful curves adapted to the contour of the land, passing under the majestic arches of High and Washington Bridges and by the N. Y. University and University Park, the Webb Academy, the Roman Catholic Orphan Asylum and the Jerome Park Reservoir. It affords many charming views of the Harlem, with its hills and valleys, and occasional glimpses of the Hudson, with its world-famed background, the Palisades, and has been called the "Riverside Drive of the Bronx." It would form a fitting counterpart to the Speedday, on the opposite bank of the Harlem. Through Van Cortlandt Park it should be extended along the high ground to the east, connecting at the Yonkers line with the Sound-to-Hudson Boulevard.

City May Move Offices.

A DISAGREEMENT OVER LEASES FOR QUARTERS IN THE PARK ROW BUILDING.

A curious controversy has arisen between the Park Row Realty Co. and the City over the leases for municipal offices in the Park Row Building, Nos. 13 to 21 Park row, which seems likely to end in the company losing the City as a tenant next spring. The City leased the offices in 1889, for five years, with privilege of renewal, the five years expiring the first of April, 1904. On the 27th day of that month the Sinking Fund Commissioners authorized new leases, to run to April 1, 1905. The leases were prepared by the Corporation Counsel under the resolution, and presented to the Park Row Realty Co. for signature through the Douglas Robinson-Chas. S. Brown Co., who, in a communication under date of June 1, 1904, returned the leases with the statement that they had been instructed by the Park Row Realty Co. to return the same as not satisfactory. The Realty Co. explained this action by stating that by the City's holding over, the leases were already renewed for a period of five years from April 1, 1904, and that if the City desired new writings the authorities would have to be consistent with the leases as renewed.

Comptroller Grout contends that the City is a hold-over tenant for one year only, and the Sinking Fund has adopted his view and given orders that the rent be paid up to next April. In a report to the Comptroller, which Mr. Grout approved, Appraiser Mortimer J. Brown said:

"The City occupies rooms in a number of buildings in this vicinity which are held only on one-year terms, and I do not see why any exception should be made in the case of the Park Row Building Co. Taking this view of the case, I would respectfully recommend that no lease be entered into between the Park Row Realty Co. and the City, for the reason that being holdovers for one year a lease is not necessary, and that a resolution be adopted authorizing the Comptroller to pay the rent without the necessity of entering into a lease.

"I would further respectfully recommend that the City proceed to engage quarters in other buildings, so that by April 1, 1905, they will not be hold-over tenants with the Park Row Realty Co. for another year. There are a large number of buildings in this vicinity, which, if the owners knew that the City desired accommodations, would be glad to furnish them at a much less rate than the City is paying in the Park Row building. This recommendation, of course, is predicated on the fact that the City is not in a position to acquire property and construct its building, or purchase a building already constructed suitable for office purposes."

The city occupies 243 rooms in the building and pays something more than $80,000 annually for rent.

Bridge Building on the Harlem.

Mr. McDonald's contract for the construction of the Rapid Transit Railroad includes the substitution of a new bridge for the present Harlem Ship Canal Bridge, the new structure to carry the tracks of the elevated portion of the Rapid Transit Railroad, and the present bridge becoming the property of the contractor. Negotiations for the purchase of the old bridge from Mr. McDonald and its re-erection at Fordham Heights have been in progress for some time, and the Board of Estimate and Apportionment a year ago approved of the plan for building the Fordham Heights Bridge, and authorized an issue of $250,000 of Corporate stock for this purpose. The plan contemplated the removal of the Ship Canal Bridge and its use as a part of the new bridge, and the pivot pier to support it now under construction. At last reports Mr. McDonald had agreed to sell the bridge and move it to the new site for the sum of $80,000. A resolution authorizing the Commissioner of Bridges to accept the offer has been approved by the Board of Estimate and is now before the Board of Aldermen.

The Harlem River Ship Canal Bridge was completed in 1895, at a cost of $119,690. The new bridge which will be erected in its place will be wider and more substantial, and the New York City Railway Company and the New York Central and Hudson River Railroad Company are both contributing toward the cost, the former in order that it may be so strengthened as to carry its tracks, and the latter on account of the lengthening of the northerly span to permit of the change in its lines at Kingsbridge, so as to pass under this new bridge.

Very important movements are here outlined for the Kingsbridge and Marble Hill section. The intersection of the Rapid Transit and the New York Central will develop a very important transfer point, which the proposed bridge at 207th st will incidentally accommodate by connecting Fordham Heights and the Dyckman tract, on either side of the river, and opening up unusually inviting building sections. The structure of the elevated road seems to be practically finished between Fort George and the Ship Canal, where it stops short.

When Taxes Become A Lien.

Taxes become a lien upon real estate on the first Monday in October, which this year falls on the 3d. We state this owing to the great number of inquiries we have had for the date. The tax rate for the various boroughs was printed in our last issue.

The City has just taken possession of the new bulkhead rights and land between West 17th and 18th sts, between Eleventh and Thirteenth avs. This property is necessary for the Chelsea improvement. The Consolidated Gas Co. occupies the premises with a manufacturing plant, and it has been at the request of that company that the City has not vested title before this.

The Republic of Panama has loaned the following on mortgage in this city at 4½ per cent.: On 315 St. Nicholas av, $20,000; on 135 5th av, $250,000; on Mott st, northwest corner of Hester st, $63,000; on Houston st, southwest corner of Macdougal st, $66,000; on 1st av, northwest corner of 9th st, $64,000; on 54 to 58 Carmine st, and 28 Bedford st, $50,000; on 5 East 78th st, $125,000 and on 117 West 79th st, $130,000.

The sale of the northeast corner of Lexington av and 32d st, a plot 49.8x57, at auction this week for $59,750, by order of the trustees of the estate of Matthew Byrnes, is interesting. Some months ago an offer of $49,000 was made and accepted, subject to the approval of the court. The interested parties were all satisfied that the price was adequate, the offer having in the meantime been raised $1,000 by a party claiming to have made an offer of $50,000 some time prior to the $49,000 offer. It was finally agreed that the best method of disposing of the property was to sell it at auction, the sale taking place on Aug. 1, when the extraordinary price of $59,750 was paid by George H. Shaffer, the owner of adjoining property and the man who made the first offer of $49,000 through Charles Hibson & Co.

A. B. See Electric Elevator Co.'s New Shop.

A picture of the building in course of construction is printed elsewhere in this issue. The company's factory in Brooklyn was acquired by the City in the interest of the new Manhattan bridge, the Board of Estimate and Apportionment having some time ago appropriated the sum of $170,000 for the purchase. The floor area of the new shop will be two and one-half acres.

Principles of City Land Values.

WHAT IS THOUGHT OF MR. RICHARD M. HURD'S BOOK—WELL RECEIVED THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

(From the Toledo (Ohio) Blade.)

A book of particular value to those interested in real estate. * * * The work has a strong local interest, as Toledo, selected as one of the most progressive and thriving cities of the country, has been used as illustrative matter in text and pictures. The volume is typographically attractive, and as it stands alone in its field, is a noteworthy bit of practical literature.

(From the New Orleans Picayune.)

The talented author, a lawyer, for some years past in charge of the mortgage department of a large insurance company, became impressed with the inadequate facilities for judging of the real values of city real estate, and set himself to study the matter and evolve some general principles on which such values could be predicted. The investigation has taken him through a wide field of study, and has carried him to distant times and countries. His first chapter is devoted to the general principles which are involved. The second tells about the forces creating cities. The third discusses the location of cities, and so to their ground plan, the direction of growth, etc. The book is evidently the fruit of mature reflection, and is written in a clear, logical style, which will interest the layman as well as the profession. It is illustrated with a large number of plates, diagrams, pictures, etc., which makes the writer's meaning clear. It is an interesting and important work.

The WORLD OF BUILDING

The Labor Situation.

It is too early at this hour to estimate or predict the effect of the ultimatum of the Building Trades Employers' Association which was generally announced on Friday morning. So far as known, conditions have not since changed; no more journeymen have struck, no more have returned to work. Between now and Monday morning a decision will be made by the unions as to which course they will follow. The employers have with one accord taken their stand; the strikers must return to work and adhere to the arbitration plan, or see all the members of their union locked out. But the Employers are not bitter, though that impression may be conveyed by some repesentations in the daily press; if any disaffected union in the trade makes proper settlement within a reasonable time its members will not be laid off.

The action of the Board of Governors was taken at a special meeting after the Emergency Committee had conferred over the matter. Charles L. Eidlitz, President of the Employers' Association made the following statement on Thursday night:

"After reviewing the situation from every point, we have come to the conclusion that we cannot come to an amicable settlement of the building trades troubles as matters now stand. We have tried our best, but the repeated violations of the arbitration agreement by the unions have decided us to use strong measures. This lockout will include a radius of twenty-five miles around New York, taking in all territory where members of the Employers' Association have contracts. If the desired effect is not brought about by the lockout, we have other measures in view."

The ramifications of the matters leading up to this crisis need not here be recited nor reviewed. They had their origin when the new Building Trades Alliance was organized by Philip Weinseimer out of the remnants of the old Parks board and the more recent Board of Representatives in the interest, as is surmised, of walking delegates. The plan of organization is at least designed to give control to the forces in the unions controlled by the walking delegates, whose authority is not recognized by the Building Trades Employers' Association. The formation of this board was in itself considered a menace to the established arbitration policy, which the unions as well as the employers' associations had pledged themselves to uphold. That the new alliance board would seek opportunities for exercising its power, even without justice, was apprehended.

Thus far the actual strikes outside of the Subway have affected only a few concerns in the building trades, and the grievances on which they are predicated seem to be trivial. The George A. Fuller Co.'s work on the Trinity Building has been to some extent interfered with, principally by the stonecutters, and H. L. Nelson & Son, painters, and R. H. Reid & Co., marble workers, have also had contracts held up.

It is noteworthy that two strong unions, the Bricklayers and the Structural Ironworkers, are not participating in the acts of the alliance board and are not represented in that body.

Mr. Paul Starrett, the president of the George A. Fuller Company, denounced the methods of the Building Trades Alliance and asserted that the disaffected stone cutters have no real grievance. "Their story that Bradley & Sons have an open shop," he said, "is untrue. The real trouble is one between the Manhattan and the Brooklyn unions of journeymen stone cutters, the latter being exclusively employed by the Bradley firm. For a long time the Manhattan stone cutters have been fighting Bradley.

"The present trouble has been caused by a few unscrupulous labor leaders seeking power by attempting to rally about them the labor unions in the Building Trades' Alliance, in the hope of dominating the local industrial world, as the old regime tried to do under the leadership of "Sam" Parks. The employers now must stand together, arbitration or no arbitration, and put the unions back into the streets until they see the folly of their ways."

While the situation seems to threaten another protracted war in the building trades, it is hoped that the unions will take advantage of the opportunity now given them to reaffirm allegiance to the plan of arbitration by calling off strikes where these have been ordered. Otherwise, the interest of the public at large, including many helpless people, will be greatly injured. The unions which are affected by the employers' ultimatum are the Brotherhood of Carpenters, Electrical Workers' Union, Plumbers and Gasfitters' Union, Plasterers' Union, Metallic Lathers' Union, Tile Layers' Union and the Elevator Constructors' Union.

Mr. Weinseimer, the president of the Building Trades Alliance, and other leaders are inclined to treat the lockout of the employers as a bluff. They assert that the purpose is to bring about the "open shop" and that the labor men are not trying to do away with the arbitration agreement.

Charles L. Eidlitz, president of the Building Trades Employers' Association, made a statement on Friday concerning the situation, in which he said:

"We greatly regret that the public should be inconvenienced, but all employers in the building trade are firm in their determination not to go back to the old sympathetic strike, with its graft accompaniments, of a year ago. No man, be he plumber, carpenter, or electrician, can accomplish the end which the Building Trades Alliance has in mind, i e., the calling of sympathetic strikes, so long as the Building Trades Association is in existence. The members of the Building Trades Employers' Association are not in favor of the open shop. If they were, they would not be making the fight on the present lines."

The emergency committee of the employers' association is composed of Otto M. Eidlitz, chairman; Charles L. Eidlitz, Hugh Getty, B. D. Traitel, Leonard K. Prince, William K. Fertig, J. R. Strong, Lewis Harding and W. A. Garrigues.

Material Market.

CEMENT.

The Consolidated Rosendale Cement Company is installing a plant for the manufacture of heading in its Whiteport mill, formerly the property of the Newark and Rosendale Cement Company. When the Consolidated acquired the property this mill was closed and partially dismantled, as all the cement required could be made in the more modernly equipped mills. The manufacture of heading is a new departure in the cement business in Ulster county, and is only made possible by the combination of cement companies into the Consolidated. Each of the old companies owned a considerable acreage of woodland which had been acquired as an incident to the acquisition of the cement rock. None of these holdings being large enough to justify the putting in of a plant to utilize the timber, heading has always been purchased from distant points.

Cement quotations in the wholesale market continue at low levels. Rosendale is going for 50 cents in cotton and 70 in wood; and Portland at about $1.00 and $1.28 respectively.

Mr. Hendrickson, of Hiram Snyder & Co., agents for Lehigh, has nearly recovered from an attack of typhoid fever, being now able to walk out.

BRICK PRICES HIGHER.

The Hudson river brick market continues very firm, and prices average higher than last week. Quotations are from seven and an eighth to seven and a half, and manufacturers are forwarding supplies as rapidly as they can to meet the requirements of builders.

Mr. John C. McNamara, of 634 West 52d st, prominent in the wholesale trade, remarked this week that the conditions prevailing in the brick market at present are the logical outcome of a large shortage in the stocks held in Hudson River yards at the opening of navigation this year, and an increase in new building in New York City, as indicated by the plans filed, as published in the "Record & Guide" and as compared with the same period of a year ago, which in turn is caused by a demand for buildings, as is evidenced by a recent increase in rentals. He added: "The destruction of several large blocks of buildings during a short period in the heart of a great city, for railroad, park and street improvements creates a demand for new buildings somewhere in the vicinity; in addition to this the opening of the new bridge is booming a section of the Borough of Brooklyn and the prospective opening of the new Subway is similarly affecting building in the Bronx district. New York building seems to be outgrowing Manhattan.

"Manufacturers do not anticipate any low prices on brick this season and do not think construction is curtailed by present price rates, because there is nothing artificial in them. Labor this season is not all what could be desired on the brick yards, but the manufacturers manage to put about a normal supply of goods each week upon the New York market for sale, which is promptly absorbed by the buyers. In a nation of sound money which produces annually over six hundred million bushels of wheat, two thousand million bushels of corn, upwards of ten million bales of cotton and other great crops, with the enormous amount of wealth annually taken from its mines, its clay products, etc., it would seem that good times should be continuous, except as when great industries are paralyzed by big strikes or over-expanded credits or crop failures may give temporary set backs. The very extensive improvements under way by two great railroad corporations in the city should make for good times in New York and vicinity for a long while, and one point worth noting in this connection is that those great corporations have the increasing business in New York City which warrants such extraordinary improvements and outlay."

It should be noted, however, by builders and owners that the brick market is not a criterion for other building materials. Average the whole list in the proportion which each constituent enters into a building, and the result will not be very different from average prices when bricks were selling at their normal value. Common lumber is no higher by the official card, and actually somewhat lower; and nearly the same is true of hard wood. Linseed oil, turpentine and lime are higher, but structural steel and cement are exceedingly low. In a word, the failure of Manhattan Borough and other large centers to take their usual quota of supplies this season has had the effect of modifying the prices of articles not controlled by local conditions. Common brick is a local material, locally produced and locally utilized exclusively, therefore depending on local conditions. Iron beams, girders and columns, window glass, builders' hardware, plumbers' supplies, paint, cement and wood trim, are general products, the respective values of which in the market depend on general and not local influences. In our largest centers this season first-class building is not brisk, and taking one thing with another, it should cost no more in New York for materials this year than last, even with the higher price of brick. A dollar or so more per thousand brick is not such a considerable addition to the cost of constructing a house as to cause a suspension of work, and in looking for a reason for dullness in building of the first class in Manhattan this summer, it will scarcely answer to put the blame on the material market.

RUBBER GOODS.

The New York Belting & Packing Co., 91 and 93 Chambers st, New York, announce the withdrawal of all prices on rubber goods, taking effect Aug. 10. New prices will be named on application, it being intimated that the advance will only be consistent with the increased cost of manufacture and the maintenance of the high quality of their products. The company remark that the price of all grades of crude rubber has steadily advanced during the past two years, and is now higher than for twenty years.

TIN PLATE.

The reduction of 15 cents a box on tin plate announced last week by the American Sheet and Tinplate Co., brings the price of 100-lb. coke ternes down to $3.25, f. o. b., Pittsburgh, while the rate of discount for cash was increased from 1 per cent. to 2 per cent. It is understood that the reduction on terne plates was slightly heavier than on bright plates. Since the reduction prices are rather unsettled. The American Sheet and Tinplate Co. is quoting 14x20 100-lb. cokeplates at $3,30, Pittsburgh, making the price delivered in New York $3.49 per box.

LUMBER

Hemlock and yellow pine are being cut a little from the list prices, and whitewood is officially lower. In hard-woods, in pine of all kinds, cypress, spruce, hemlock—all along the line, wholesalers can be found who are willing to shade prices. In short, the lumber market is more favorable for builders than it has been thus far this year, and dealers, expecting cheaper goods, are not stocking very heavy.

The architect will receive all figures. Work will begin May 1st, 1905.

School Work in Queens.

There are now under way in Queens, and in all stages of progress, from the completed and accepted plans to the nearly finished structures of brick, stone and wood, fifteen new school buildings and extensions to old ones, sufficient to accommodate 12,300 more children than are housed in the existing buildings, and the total cost of this increased accommodations is over $1,750,000. The Long Island City High School, which was partly opened in April for class work, will be completed by September. School 83, at Ravenswood, Long Island City, and No. 81, at Bleecker and Ralph sts, Ridgewood Heights, both large buildings, will be finished it is hoped by next September. School 83 at Jamaica, 84 at Steinway and 71 at Metropolitan will be completed in the fall of 1905. Additions are to be built to Schools Nos. 1 and 6 at Long Island City, No. 4 at Dutch Kills, No. 22 at Flushing, No. 83 at Rosedale, No. 37 at Springfield, No. 53 and 54 at Richmond Hill, No. 28 at College Point and 49 in Jamaica. Plans may be seen or are in preparation at the office of the Queens Borough Architect and Superintendent at Flushing.

The Salt Water Fire Protection System.

The construction of the New York high-pressure salt water fire protection system will provide some work for builders and considerable for excavators. Work on the plans and specifications, especially for Brooklyn, are well in hand, and it is expected the mains will be available for service in about eighteen months. The first system will be installed at Coney Island, which has never had adequate fire protection. The pumping station for that district will be at Neptune av and West 12th st, and will be equipped with from 450 to 525 horse-power of gas engines, divided into three units and direct connected to triplex plunger pumps. In Brooklyn the pumping end of the project is much further advanced and in about five or six weeks bids will be asked for the machinery. The Brooklyn system will serve the entire water front and will contain two pumping stations, which will be equipped with multistage centrifugal pumps, driven by induction motors, using the Edison current. The main station will be at Joralemon and Furman sts, and the other station at Willoughby and St. Edwards sts. Surveys are still being made for the Manhattan system, and the locations for stations have not been definitely selected. For the three systems there will be required a large tonnage of cast iron pipe, special steel castings and other accessories.

The work has reached the second story, where window frames are being set. Red brick is being used exclusively for the walls. W. K. Benedict, of 11 East 42d st, is the architect.

The 16-sty Royal building is reaching completion on the southwest corner of Fulton and William sts, under the supervision of the Remington Construction Co, from plans by Bruce Price & De Sibour, 1133 Broadway. The Truth of the Whole Matter.

A great deal to ask for!

A still "greater deal" to obtain!

A member of one of our leading firms of architects—if not the leading firm—wrote recently to the "Record & Guide" regarding so called "Fireproof" Buildings as follows:

The truth of the whole matter is that the large question of making the finish and furniture of buildings fireproof has never been adequately studied, and it is undoubtedly the weakest point in our present-day construction.

The Weak Point—The Weakest Point! So long as it exists the word "Fireproof" is Not Applicable to our Buildings.

Brick Walls, Terra Cotta Casings, Concrete Arches and Floors, (excellent and undoubtedly fireproof in themselves) result only in giving us "Fire-retarding," "Slow-burning" Buildings so long as they are conjoined to Thousands of Square Feet of Flammable Trim and Finish.

The Modern Building will not be completely Perfected and Developed until it is in fact "Absolutely Fireproof." That is the logical conclusion of the Growth of our Cities, of the Increasing Stringency of our Building Laws, of the Introduction of the Elevator and the Steel Skeleton Construction, of the larger and larger sums of Money invested in Skyscrapers, and the rapidly Increasing Risk to Human Life!

simple design almost without ornamentation. The first 3 stories are of granite and the superstructure of light brick capped by a wide copper cornice of classic design. It is the only tall structure in its immediate neighborhood and all its rooms are well lighted and airy.

A 6-sty brick loft building, light cream in color, has reached the fourth story level on the northwest corner of Greenwich and Warren sts. It is of mill construction, 76x91.10 in size, and is estimated by the architect, David Stone, of the Bible House, to cost $100,000. The Surety Realty Co, 135 Broadway, and Jackson & Stern, 31 Nassau st, are the owners. With the exception of the recently completed Mattlage building opposite, it is the only notable modern improvement in this section.

Plasterers are working on the first story of the 10-sty Glackner building at Greenwich and Fulton sts, the floors above being practically finished, excepting the trim. This building, of red and cream brick, with rounded corner, overlooks the neighboring structures. John Glackner, of 207 West 121st st, is the owner. The architects are Dehli & Howard 1193 Broadway.

In Maiden Lane, at Nos. 47-49, old buildings have made way for a modern 12-sty store, loft and office structure to be built for S. F. Myers, of 48 Maiden Lane, from plans by Robert T. Lyons, of 31 Union sq. Pier footings have been laid, some of the steel piers are in place, and foundation walls are being built. The building will be 45.5x89.7x irregular, and will have a 7-sty extension 29.10x41. Its cost is estimated at $225,000.

The old brick structure on the historic site at the northeast corner of Broadway and Beaver st, has been torn down to make way for a modern 12-sty bank and office building to be put up by the New York Produce Exchange Bank of No. 2 Broadway. The site, known as Nos. 10-12 Broadway faces Bowling Green and the Bowling Green building. On the southeast corner stands the Produce Exchange. Some excavating has been done and, as the soil is sandy, plank retaining walls have been built. Ernest Flagg, 35 Wall st, is the architect for the proposed building. The Thompson-Starrett Co., 51 Wall st, have received the general contract.

On the northeast corner of William and Frankfort sts work has begun preparatory to building an 11-sty loft building for J. W. & H. V. D. Black, lithographers, of 95 William st. The excavation is being dug. The soil is sandy here, and an old stone retaining wall runs along the William st front. On the Frankfort st side old brick vaults extend under the street. The plot abuts the line of the Brooklyn bridge, and adjoins on the east a 4-sty brick building. Both streets are narrow and occupied by 4 and 5-story brick buildings of the old type. The new structure will overtop them and make a notable improvement for this section. Milliken Bros. hold the general contract, and Buchman & Fox, 11 East 59th st, are the architects.

A 10-story warehouse has been started on a plot 121x81 on the southwest corner of Cliff and Ferry sts, for Charles A. Schieren, ex-mayor of Brooklyn. The old building has been demolished, making a large open space in this crowded section of the old city. Excavating is being done through heavy clayey soil, water, found so plentifully in "the Swamp," is being pumped out, and pier footings are being laid. The site abuts a narrow alley, separating it from the 6-sty warehouse of the United States Leather Co, and adjoins on the south old 5-sty hide and leather warehouses. The Charles A. Schieren Co, manufacturers of leather belting, have their present factory diagonally opposite the future structure. The Thompson-Starrett Co are the general contractors, and Frank Freeman, of 132 Nassau st, is the architect.

The new building at Nos. 60-62 Wall st has been advancing rapidly of late, having now reached the eleventh tier of structural steel work. Fireproof flooring, too, is in through seven stories. Side walls of brick are well advanced, and the front to be of white marble through three stories, is up to the 2d floor. On the Pine st (Nos. 63-67) side greater progress has been made as work here was started earlier than in Wall st. The frame work appears to have risen thirty stories and the enclosing walls of light brick are up through twenty-two stories. It has been a wonderful piece of engineering skill, and details of the foundation work were printed some time ago. The building is being erected by that corporation known as the Sixty Wall Street Company, whose offices are at No. 1 Wall st, the architects being Messrs. Clinton & Russell, of 32 Nassau st.

MAIDEN LANE.—An 18-sty office building will be erected on a plot 72.7x84.4x irregular at 15-17-19 Maiden Lane, and 25x50 and 24.8x64 at 18-20-22 John st, at the expiration of present leases on May 1st, 1905. The plot now occupied by old 4 and 5-sty buildings has been purchased, through Herbert A. Sherman, by investors who for the present prefer to remain unknown. However, Mr. Sherman states that the improvement will be carried out though no architects have yet been chosen.

Dwellings.

Louis Korn, 31 West 33rd st, New York, has awarded to Shock & Flemming, of Elberon, N. J., the general contract to build a 3-sty frame cottage at Elberon, for Mr. David Korn. The cost is estimated at $20,000. It is to contain all modern improvements.

165TH ST.—John Yule, builder, of 510 East 161st st, will improve the block front on the south side of 165th st between Grant and Morris avs, which is part of the old Fleetwood Park tract. Dwellings are being erected in the neighborhood.

Questions and Answers.

COMMISSION ON LEASABLE PROPERTY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Is there a legal rate of commission for the sale of leasehold property, and if so, what is the legal or customary rate? We sold a building which is on leasehold ground, and in order to sell, we were obliged to get the consent of the parties who own the ground to transfer the lease. We find the commission for selling leases is 5 per cent. The house in question is assessed at $26,000, and is fully worth $35,000, ground and all. The building we sold for about $7,000. What are we entitled to?

Answer.—The only custom is for 1 per cent. upon $7,000. Brokers, however, generally claim 5 per cent., and accept 3 per cent. in settlement.

HIS SHARE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

A, as broker leases a store for B, the owner, and C, the tenant, pays one month's rent. Then C does not take it, but B keeps the month's rent. A had his signs "To Let" on Building. Will you kindly tell me if A is entitled to any commission and how much?

Answer.—If B has accepted C as his tenant for a specified term of one year or less, the broker is entitled to his commission at 2½ per cent. on the rent for that term, but if the renting is for one month only, or from month to month, the broker is only entitled to his commissions at 2½ per cent. on the month's rent paid by the tenant.

INSURANCE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

Can I build a house in Brownsville, have it insured for over winter, not living in it, at regular rates, $6,000 for $30, or will I have to insure it at builder's risks. Must I pay higher tax if there is not a recorded mortgage on it or not?

Answer.—Get the insurance company to attach to your policy of insurance their clause permitting premises to be vacant for a part of the year, it will cost you no more with such clause than without it, and your premises will not be taxed at a greater valuation without a mortgage thereon, than with one.

AN AGENT'S GRIEVANCE.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

An agent has leased a house to a party, rent to be paid on the first day of each month in advance. When Agent went the first of July to collect July rent the tenant had gone away with his family, presumably to the country without telling Agent that he would be absent, and did not make any arrangements as to the paying of the rent, and has not returned up to now. What redress has Agent, being unaware of tenant's present address? Can Agent enter premises forcibly, as two month's rent are due him, or he is at the mercy of the tenant, who may come back to pay the rent or simply take out his furniture and go somewhere else?

Answer.—Agent may dispossess tenant and cause tenant's furniture to be put into the street, under sections 2231, 2234, 2235, 2238, 2239, 2240, 2243 and 2249 of the code of civil procedure, or he may sue tenant for rent.

SALOONS AND ADJACENT PROPERTY.

To the Editor of THE RECORD AND GUIDE:

I would like to look up the law on the subject of saloons not being allowed without consent of nearby property owners. Can you refer me to chapter and verse?

Answer.—It is necessary to file a consent of the owner of the building in which the liquor traffic shall be carried on (with one exception), and if the traffic is to be carried on in any building or place owned by the public, or in any building or place situate on land owned by the public, then it is necessary to have the consent of the authorities having the custody and control of the building and land, and when the nearest entrance of premises in which traffic in liquor is to be carried on is within two hundred feet measured in a straight line of the nearest entrance to a building or buildings used exclusively for a dwelling a consent in writing must be procured of the owner or owners or agent or agents of same of at least two thirds of the total number of such buildings within two hundred feet so occupied as dwellings (with certain exceptions). See chapter 312 laws of 1897, amending section 17 of the liquor tax law.

Traffic in liquor shall not be permitted on the same street or avenue and within two hundred feet of a building occupied exclusively as a church or schoolhouse, the measurements to be taken in a straight line from the center of the nearest entrance of the building used for such church or school to the center of the nearest entrance of the place in which the liquor traffic is desired to be carried on (with certain exceptions). See chapter 485 laws of 1904, amending section 24 of the liquor tax law. See also matter of McMonagle, 41 miscellaneous 407, in which "nearest entrance" is held to mean "all entrances." See also matter of Ireland, 41 miscellaneous 425, in which it was held that consents of owners of buildings used mainly for business purposes cannot be counted in making up consents of two thirds of owners of buildings within two hundred feet of entrance to building in which liquor traffic is to be carried on.

CONVEYANCES

Whenever the letters Q. C., C. a. G. and B. & S. occur, preceded by the name of the grantee, they mean as follows:

1st.—Q. C. is an abbreviation for Quit Claim deed, i. e., a deed wherein all the right, title and interest of the grantor is conveyed, omitting all covenants and warranty.

2d.—C. a. G. means a deed containing Covenant against Grantor only, in which he covenants that he hath not done any act whereby the estate conveyed may be impeached, charged or encumbered.

3d.—B. & S. is an abbreviation for Bargain and Sale deed, wherein, although the seller makes no expressed covenants, he really grants or conveys the property for a valuable consideration, and thus impliedly claims to be the owner of it. The street or avenue numbers given in these lists are, in all cases, taken from the insurance maps when they are not mentioned in the deeds. The numbers, it will occasionally be found, do not correspond with the existing ones, owing to there having been no official designation made of them by the Department of Public Works.

4th.—The first date is the date the deed was drawn. The second date is the date of filing same. When both dates are the same only one is given.

5th.—The figures in each conveyance, thus, 2:482, denote that the property mentioned is in section 2 block 482.

6th.—It should also be noted in section and block numbers that the instrument as filed is strictly followed.
